20 NATIONAL RANK FOR TEAM GSR

"Gary Patterson's record at TCU is among the best in the nation. That's tangible. The intangible quality of the program is even more impressive. Patterson's passion, enthusiasm and class is evident in the way his team plays. He has an ability to make a unique connection with his players. I think that's why he's been so successful developing players. Gary Patterson is the main reason TCU is a big time program with staying power."

CREDITS

The 2007 TCU football media guide is a production of the Horned Frogs' Athletics Media Relations Office. Student assistants Rob Beuerlein and Jessica Guillory made significant contributions to the publication. Drew Myers, director of athletics communications, led the re-design initiative. A very special thanks to Celeste Manner-McDade and Jack Lawit for their over-the-top dedication and effort. Credit is also directed to all the past TCU athletics media relations directors for their efforts in laying the foundation for this guide. Photography by Vladimir Cherry, Linda Kaye, Anthony Vasser and Scott Bjornlie. The 2007 TCU football media guide may be purchased at the TCU Athletics Media Relations Office for $20 plus $3 shipping.

MARK COHEN

Director of Athletics Media Relations / Football Contact

TCU Athletics Media Relations Director Mark Cohen came to the Horned Frogs in August 2005 after working the previous 16 years at Wofford College, an NCAA Division I institution in Spartanburg, S.C.

Cohen was hired as Wofford's sports information director in 1989 by current TCU Athletics Director Danny Morrison, who was then the Terriers' athletics director. Cohen was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations in January 1992 and to Associate Athletics Director in September 1996.

After graduating from Cal State Fullerton in 1988, Cohen began his career in Texas as an assistant in the University of Houston sports information office. He also worked in various game-day capacities with the Houston Astros, Houston Oilers and Houston Rockets.

While earning a B.A. degree in communications and a minor in business administration at Cal State Fullerton, Cohen served as the media relations director for the 1988 Titan baseball team which advanced to the College World Series.

Under Cohen's direction, Wofford's football media guide covers received "Best in the Nation" honors three times from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). The Terriers' football game program covers were also named "Best in the Nation" on three occasions. Cohen has received a total of 11 "Citations for Excellence in Publications."

Cohen and his wife, Sarah, have three sons: David (14), Adam (12) and Steven (8).

RYAN SCHULZ

Assistant Director of Athletics Media Relations / Secondary Football Contact

Ryan Schulz is in his second year. He was promoted from coordinator of media relations to assistant director in March 2007. Schulz came to TCU from Auburn, where he served as a media relations assistant from 2005-06.

A native of Leawood, Kan., Schulz graduated from Kansas State in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in marketing.

While at K-State, Schulz worked in the athletics department as a student assistant in the sports information office for four years.

Prior to his work at Auburn, Schulz interned for the Kansas City Chiefs and Wizards in the sales and marketing department during the summer of 2005.

He has also served internships with the Kansas City Sports Commission, Sports Radio 810 WHB, KC Metro Sports television and the Kansas City T-Bones Baseball Club.

BLAKE

HORNED FROG OFFENSE

With an eight-game winning streak to close the 2006 campaign, its second straight 11-win season and third in the last four years, the TCU football team will be marked by momentum when it reports to campus Aug. 1 for the start of preseason camp. Adding to the momentum is the Horned Frogs' new Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility and Cox Field which opened in Spring 2007. Offensively, TCU returns six starters. The Frogs placed ninth in the country in rushing yards per game (194.6) and 17th in total yards each contest (408.5).

MARCUS JACKSON

QUARTERBACK

With the graduation of Jeff Ballard, TCU's career leader in winning percentage (.905, 19-2) and completion percentage (61.1), the quarterback position will provide one of the more intriguing competitions in preseason camp. Sophomore Marcus Jackson (6-1, 216, So.) and redshirt freshman Andy Dalton (6-3, 210, RFr.) will battle for the first-team job. Jackson had an impressive collegiate debut in last year's season-opening 17-7 win at Baylor. Jackson entered the game and completed 11-of-13 passes for 148 yards and two touchdowns to rally TCU to victory. For his efforts against Baylor, Jackson was named the Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Week. A native of Houston, Jackson completed 59.1 percent (26-of-44) of his pass attempts on the year for 386 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Dalton redshirted as a true freshman in 2006. While serving as TCU's emergency No. 3 quarterback, he was part of the Frogs' travel squad to conference road games. Providing depth behind Jackson and Dalton at quarterback is redshirt freshman Zack Eskridge (6-3, 195, RFr.) from Rockwall, Texas.

SHAE REAGAN

TIGHT END

Converted quarterback Shae Reagan (6-4, 261, Jr.) is a key returnee to the Frogs' offense. All 14 of his receptions last season went for first downs. His average of 21.4 yards per catch was tops on the Frogs for players with more than two receptions and the sixth-best single-season mark in TCU history. Quinton Cunigan (6-3, 237, Sr.) enters the fall in the No. 2 position behind Reagan. Evan Frosch (6-4, 235, RFr.) is a promising young player who was redshirted as a true freshman in 2006. He was listed as third team on the depth chart following spring practice.

AARON BROWN

RUNNING BACK

Aaron Brown (6-1, 196, Jr.) returns for his junior season as one of the nation's premier backs. The 2005 Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year, Brown had an even better sophomore campaign. The Katy, Texas, native rushed for a team-best 801 yards and nine touchdowns while adding 34 receptions for 455 yards. A second-team All-MWC selection in 2006, Brown placed third in the league with his average of 116.8 all-purpose yards per game. Joseph Turner (6-1, 226, So.) enters the fall in a second-team position behind Brown at tailback. Turner, impressive when called upon last season, placed fifth on the Frogs in rushing with 166 yards on a 6.9 per carry mark. The Austin, Texas, native topped TCU with a career-best 83 yards on 11 carries, including a 24-yard scoring run, in a 52-0 victory over San Diego State. Justin Watts (5-10, 195, Jr.) is a returning letterman who made major contributions when injuries decimated the TCU tailback position early in the 2006 campaign.

DONALD MASSEY

WIDE RECEIVER

Despite the graduation of Michael DePriest and Quentily Harmon, TCU returns a deep corps of receivers. Donald Massey (5-11, 172, Jr.) is a playmaker who will contend for All-MWC honors in 2007. Massey tied a single-game TCU record with three touchdown catches in a 52-0 win over San Diego State. He also posted his first career 100-yard receiving day that game with 100 yards on six catches. Walter Bryant (6-4, 206, Jr.) and Ervin Dickerson (6-1, 200, Sr.) will begin spring drills in first-team positions. Bryant is a big target who totaled 10 receptions for 98 yards in 2006. Dickerson had a reception in nine of 13 games a year ago, totaling 12 catches for 96 yards. Marcus Brock (6-0, 182, Sr.) returned to action last season after missing the 2005 campaign due to injury. Possessing big-play ability, Brock had three receptions while adding two rushing touchdowns on just four carries. Derek Moore (6-3, 177, Sr.) started seven games last season and had eight receptions for 98 yards. Ryan Christian (5-11, 188, So.), a local player from Aledo, had two catches a year ago and figures into the mix this fall. Bart Johnson (6-1, 190, RFr.), Clint Renfro (6-0, 160, RFr.) and Jimmy Young (6-1, 200, RFr.) are a trio of redshirt freshmen who will compete for playing time.

OFFENSIVE LINE

TCU returns three starters on the offensive line from a unit that allowed just 15 sacks a year ago, tied for the sixth-best mark nationally. The Frogs also ranked ninth in the country in rushing yards per game (194.6). Matty Lindner (6-4, 298, Sr.), a second-team All-MWC selection in 2006, is at left guard. The Outland Trophy candidate did not take part in spring drills as he recovered from an injury sustained in the Poinsettia Bowl. The senior from Comfort, Texas, is expected to be at full strength for preseason camp in August. Lindner allowed just one sack last year. Blake Schlueter (6-3, 272, Jr.), the returning starter at center, is on the Rimington Award Watch List. He was particularly impressive in the second half of last season, playing as well as anyone on the line. Schlueter was honorable-mention All-MWC as he led TCU in knockdown blocks. Veteran Tony Savino (6-2, 277, Sr.) will compete with Jake Kirkpatrick (6-5, 273, RFr.) for playing time behind Schlueter. Kirkpatrick (Tyler, Texas) was a redshirt last season. Wade Sisk (6-7, 271, Sr.), who started all 13 games at right tackle last year, will move to left tackle after the graduation of four-year starter and two-time first-team All-MWC performer Herb Taylor. Providing depth behind Sisk will be promising

MATTY LINDNER

Nic Richmond (6-8, 298, So.), who gained valuable experience in a back-up role to Taylor last year, and converted center Tyler Marrou (6-5, 268, So.). Replacing Sisk at right tackle will be Marshall Newhouse (6-3, 317, So.). A native of Dallas, Newhouse was the only true freshman to play on offense for TCU last season. Giles Montgomery (6-5, 295, Jr.) came out of spring drills as the starter at right guard. Behind him is Heath Raetz (6-5, 315, Jr.), who missed last season due to injury.

TCU

HORNED FROG DEFENSE

Nine defensive starters return to a TCU unit that ranked second nationally in run defense (60.8 yards per game) and total defense (234.9 yards per game) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game). The Frogs were also seventh in pass efficiency defense (102.3 rating). TCU allowed just nine touchdown passes on the year, tied for the fifth-lowest total in the nation.

TOMMY BLAKE

DEFENSIVE LINE

Led by two-time, first-team All-MWC defensive ends Tommy Blake (6-3, 252, Sr.) and Chase Ortiz (6-3, 255, Sr.), TCU returns three of four starters on its defensive line. Blake is a 2007 Playboy and Athlon Preseason All-American. Also tabbed by The Sporting News as the MWC Defensive Player of the Year, Blake is on watch lists for the Lombardi Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Lott Trophy. Ortiz, the 2005 MWC sack leader, has started all 25 games he's played in his TCU career. In second-team positions at defensive end are Jerry Hughes (6-2, 248, So.) and Clarence Leatch (6-4, 238, RFr.). Overshadowed by Blake and Ortiz was an outstanding 2006 campaign by defensive tackle James Vess (6-3, 282, Jr.), who started the final eight games. A Fort Worth native, Vess posted a sack in four of the last seven contests and was twice named a TCU Defensive Player of the Week during the Frogs' eight-game winning streak to close the season. Wayne Daniels (6-2, 240, So.), another of the true freshmen to play last year, provides depth behind Vess. Cody Moore (6-1, 292, Jr.), who started three games in 2006, is slated to take over the first-team job at nose tackle.

JASON PHILLIPS

LINEBACKER

Keyed by two-time All-MWC selection Jason Phillips (6-1, 234, Jr.), the entire TCU linebacker corps returns. Phillips is ranked by The Sporting News as the nation's 10th-best middle linebacker. In 2005, he became the first freshman defensive player in league history to be named All-MWC when he was a second-team pick. Last year, he was a first-team selection. Phillips (Waller, Texas), who has started all 25 games in his TCU career, is the Frogs' top-returning tackler with 73 stops. He led TCU with 71 tackles in 2005. A fixture opposite Phillips is unheralded David Hawthorne (6-0, 225, Sr.). A senior from Corsicana, Texas, Hawthorne started all 13 games last year. He totaled 43 tackles with six for a loss. Robert Henson (6-1, 228, Jr.) has been an honorable-mention All-MWC pick in both of his first two seasons on the field for the Frogs. Despite not starting a game last year, he placed third on the team with 64 tackles. Daryl Washington (6-3, 228, So.) was an exciting newcomer a year ago as a true freshman. He gained valuable experience in a reserve role while also contributing on special teams. Darius Ingram (6-2, 235, Sr.), in his third year at TCU after transferring from LSU, adds depth to the linebacker position.

NICK SANDERS

DEFENSIVE BACK

Despite starting a pair of redshirt freshmen (Rafael Priest and Nick Sanders) in all 13 games last year, TCU allowed just nine touchdown passes to tie for the fifth-lowest total in the nation. Sanders (5-10, 174, So.), an honorable-mention Freshman All-American, tied for sixth in the MWC with 10 passes defended. He had three interceptions on the year, including one returned for a touchdown in a 31-17 win at Army. Priest (5-10, 163, So.) had a team-best nine pass break-ups. Torrey Stewart (5-11, 175, Sr.) came out of spring drills as the starter opposite Sanders. A junior college transfer, Stewart played very well at the close of last season. He posted an interception in each of the final three games. In their three-safety lineup, the Frogs return starters Brian Bonner (5-11, 199, Sr.) and David Roach (6-2, 215, Sr.) while looking to replace graduated first-team All-MWC selection Marvin White. Bonner, a playmaker on defense and special teams, was a second-team All-MWC selection from his strong safety position. He can also play at weak safety. After starting at free safety last season, Roach is now at weak safety. The senior from Abilene, Texas, totaled 33 tackles last season while his four pass break-ups tied for third on the team. Steven Coleman (6-3, 204, Jr.) enters the fall as the starter at free safety.

CHRIS MANFREDINI

SPECIAL TEAMS

The TCU special teams will again be a strength with the return of first-team All-MWC return specialist Brian Bonner (5-11, 199, Sr.) and Chris Manfredini (5-9, 165, Sr.), one of the more accurate field-goal kickers in the nation. Newcomer Clint Gresham (6-3, 225, So.), a transfer from Oklahoma, will take over for Jared Retkofsky as the short and long snapper. Derek Wash (6-4, 177, Sr.) and David Porter (5-11, 170, RFr.) will battle for the starting punter job. Wash averaged 37.5 yards on 13 kicks last season.

WORDS OF WISDOM

WHY TCU?

"I chose to attend TCU because of Coach Patterson's aggressive style of defense. Under his system, he teaches you to be like a coach on the field.

Coach Patterson pushes you to the limit and it paid off for me in becoming a fourth-round draft pick.

Coach Patterson also does a great job in preparing you for life after football.

He teaches you to do the right things and have a game plan and strategy beyond two or three years down the road, especially when it comes to taking care of your family."

– Marvin White,
former Horned Frog
and current Cincinnati Bengal

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

"I chose to attend TCU because of the great atmosphere that the campus presented to me when I visited. It felt like being at home with the people. I also liked how they stressed academics as an importance."
– William Jackson, senior fullback

"It was a great fit for my family and me, the coaching staff and my recruiter stayed strong and honest in my process, convincing me this was the place for me. It also is only an hour and a half from my home."
– Marcus Brock, senior wide receiver

"It fit me and I fit TCU. Close to home, education is great, and the football program was on the rise."
– Brian Bonner, senior safety

"I came to TCU because the coaches here saw something in me that none of the other coaches saw. They moved me from quarterback, to fullback, and then to linebacker, which worked out pretty well. They also win a lot of games here and they keep winning games, so it is a good place for me."
– Jason Phillips, junior linebacker

"TCU was the best option for the next 20 years of my life. TCU gives you tools to succeed in life."
– Marcus Jackson, sophomore quarterback

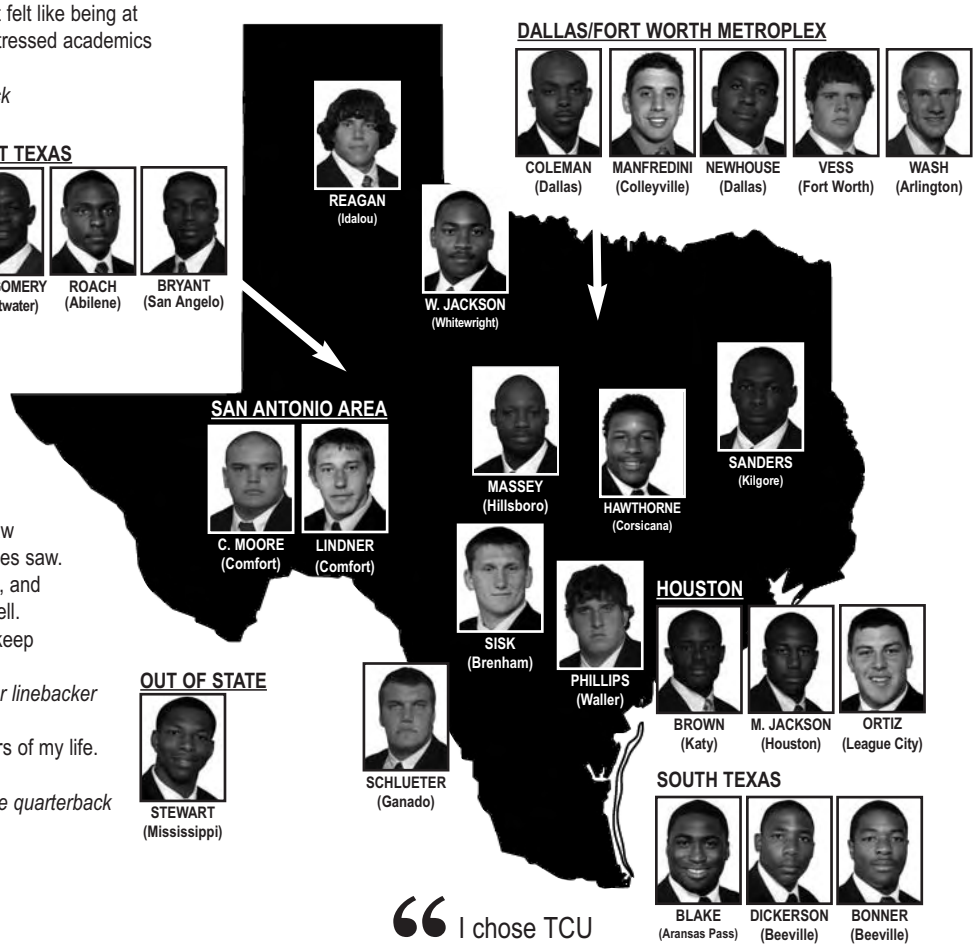
UNIQUE STATE OF MIND

Starting lineup has strong Texas ties; all but one from Lone Star State



WHY TCU?

Patterson: Why I coach at TCU

"Two things. You have to have a commitment from the university to be one of the top programs in the nation and I believe we have that commitment here. Number two, you have a great recruiting base in the state of Texas. Football is important here. Anytime you have that combination, a great recruiting base plus a university that wants to be at the top of the list, you give yourself a chance to be successful."

Patterson: Why players choose TCU

"It's the same reason why I'm here - because of the people. It's a place where you can make a difference. We have a motto as a staff: 'Take young men where they cannot take themselves.' I think TCU allows us to do that."

"I chose TCU because it had a good reputation for having a quality education, a dominating defense, and it wasn't too far from home."

– David Roach, senior safety

'THE PERFECT COMBINATION'

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

"Coach Patterson helped me as a person to grow and mature on and off the field. He demands perfection and will be hard on you on the field, but he truly cares about his players. I learned from Coach Patterson that hard work will always pay off and there's no substitute for it. He also taught me about being accountable and a man of my word in the business world and in life. TCU is where it is because of him."

– Jeff Ballard, former TCU quarterback

"Gary Patterson is a perfect fit at TCU. Most people are aware of his outstanding coaching record and high graduation rate, but he also is committed to supporting the other programs in the department as well as being actively engaged in the community. Whether fundraising for facilities or taking the time to visit with a recruit from another sport, he always finds a way to help. Simply put, he sees the big picture, and we are very fortunate to have him at TCU."

– Danny Morrison, TCU Athletics Director

"Coach Patterson expects perfection. His goal is to have you reach your full potential. He's not going to have you settle for being mediocre. Coach Patterson is very passionate about his work. If you're coming to TCU, he's going to make sure you come to work every day and you're doing everything you can to get better every day."

– Herb Taylor, former TCU offensive lineman and current Kansas City Chief

"Gary Patterson's resume speaks for itself. He's one of the top coaches in the country. He runs the TCU program the right way. He recruits good kids and turns them into outstanding young men. TCU is coming off an outstanding season as usual, and I expect another spectacular year in 2007."

– Mark May, ESPN football analyst

"The way to measure coaching success is consistency, and few coaches can claim the level of consistency that Gary Patterson and his staff have enjoyed. Coach Patterson and his staff are some of the most energetic hard working coaches that I have been around, and it shows in the product on the field." – Trev Alberts, CSTV football analyst

PATTERSON PHILOSOPHY

On his basic coaching philosophy

"I've always based my philosophy on having an offense and a defense that can compete, even when you don't have the talent to match up with your opposition. The better the players you have, the more diverse you can become. We talk about multiplicity, but also about simplicity. We want our kids to understand what they're doing, where they're going and everything that's going on, but not in so complicated a system that they can't play. I believe in getting a lot of people on the field, giving them an opportunity to play if they deserve to do that, and giving yourself a chance to win."

On the Horned Frog program

"I expect our program to be very competitive in the Mountain West Conference and continue to stay strong at the national level. We have built this over the past nine years and we want to continue to march on. I want to graduate student-athletes and give them a great experience at TCU. Our goal is to some day win another championship."

CHEMISTRY PROFESSORS

BY THE NUMBERS

80 Number of bowl games that TCU's coaching staff has taken part in.

203 Combined years of coaching experience for the TCU football staff.

5 Number of assistant coaches (Jarrett Anderson, Chad Glasgow, Mike Schultz, Dan Sharp and Eddie Williamson) who have been on the TCU staff during Gary Patterson's entire seven-year tenure as head coach.

16 Number of years tight ends coach Dan Sharp has been on the Horned Frog coaching staff. With the exception of three seasons (1998-00) at Tulsa, he has coached at TCU since 1989.

1 Number of current coaches who played under Coach Patterson. Cornerbacks coach Charles McMillian played at Utah State (1993-94) when head coach Gary Patterson was the Aggies' secondary coach.

On the chemistry of his coaching staff

"We have kept most of our coaching staff together over the past several seasons. That speaks volumes for the chemistry on this staff. If a coaching staff has chemistry, then that chemistry will carry over to the players. Certainly, this coaching staff has that. They care about players, much deeper than just academically and athletically. They want them to be successful in all areas of their lives. They want them to have a great experience at TCU."

On the player-coach relationship

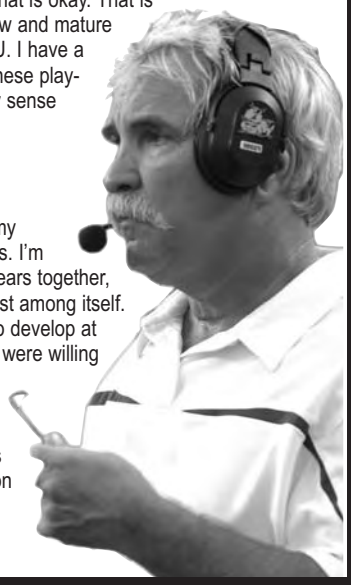
"I think our coaching staff has a great relationship with our players. The ability to be respected by them, but yet to be their friends. The ability to push them to achieve their potential, and yet do it in a manner that will warrant respect from our players. I think there is a genuine feeling that we are in this together – coaches and players. We are all one family. We know as a coaching staff that today, with only 85 scholarships available, many times the difference between winning and losing is more about the morale, spirit and the chemistry of the team than anything else. We can have the players that play the best together. I think even if you have the best players and they do not play well together, then they are not going to be successful. A lot of our success has been based on players playing well together."

On TCU's family atmosphere

"Well, obviously our personal family comes first. But, my family is a large group that contains about 100 football players. They are all mine, and that is okay. That is what our job is, to help them grow and mature through their experiences at TCU. I have a feeling of responsibility with all these players and their futures. I hope they sense that, and I think they do."

On how he's grown as a head coach

"I've gained maturity in trusting my assistant coaches to do their jobs. I'm such a hands-on guy. After six years together, the staff has developed more trust among itself. I think you saw that really start to develop at the end of the 2001 season. We were willing to make changes and not do some things because that's the way they'd always been done. The trust factor with the coaches allows me to concentrate more on the big picture."



MISSION: CHAMPIONSHIPS

Since 2000, TCU has the 11th-best record in the nation at 64-21 (.753). The Horned Frogs have closed the year with a top-25 ranking and at least 10 wins five times in the last seven seasons. Overall, TCU has been to eight bowl games in the past nine years. The Frogs are one of just five teams to reach 11 victories three times in the last four campaigns. In the last two seasons, TCU is 4-0 against Big 12 opponents while allowing just 11.0 points per game. In its last nine games against teams from BCS-automatic qualifying conferences, TCU is 8-1. The Frogs are 34-5 at Amon G. Carter Stadium since 2000. During his six seasons as head coach, Gary Patterson has had 16 players drafted with a total of 30 in NFL camps.

EIGHT BOWL GAMES IN NINE YEARS

1998 Sun Bowl - TCU 28, USC 19
Basil Mitchell rushed for 185 yards and two touchdowns to lead TCU to a 28-19 victory over USC. The Horned Frogs totaled 314 yards on the ground while shutting down a Trojan attack led by quarterback Carson Palmer.

1999 Mobile Alabama Bowl - TCU 28, East Carolina 14
LaDainian Tomlinson ran for 124 yards and two touchdowns as the Horned Frogs recorded their second-straight bowl upset, a 28-14 decision over No. 20 East Carolina. TCU's defense held the Pirates to minus-16 yards rushing.

2000 Mobile Alabama Bowl - Southern Miss 28, TCU 21
The 13th-ranked Horned Frogs dropped a 28-21 decision to Southern Miss when the Golden Eagles connected on a 28-yard touchdown pass with eight seconds left. The game marked the TCU head coaching debut of Gary Patterson.

2001 galleryfurniture.com Bowl - Texas A&M 28, TCU 9
TCU fell 28-9 to Texas A&M at the Houston Astrodome. It was the first meeting between the teams since 1995, the final year of the Southwest Conference.

2002 Liberty Bowl - TCU 17, Colorado State 3
TCU recorded the 500th victory in school history with a 17-3 win over No. 23 and Mountain West Conference champion Colorado State. The Frogs held the Rams to 149 yards of offense. Ricky Madison keyed the Frogs' ground game with 111 yards rushing.

2003 Fort Worth Bowl - Boise State 34, TCU 31
In a match-up of top-20 teams, Boise State edged TCU 34-31 to snap the Frogs' school-record 13-game winning streak at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

2005 Houston Bowl - TCU 27, Iowa State 24
Peter LoCoco's 44-yard field goal with 5:25 to play broke a tie and provided TCU with a 27-24 victory over Iowa State. TCU closed the season with a 10-game winning streak.

2006 Poinsettia Bowl - TCU 37, Northern Illinois 7
TCU held Garrett Wolfe, the nation's leading rusher, to 28 yards on 20 carries in a 37-7 victory over Northern Illinois. The Horned Frogs limited the Huskies to just five first downs and 60 yards of total offense. TCU quarterback Jeff Ballard ran for three scores and passed for another.

TCU has advanced to eight bowl games in the last nine years, earning five victories. The run began with a 28-19 win over USC in the 1998 Sun Bowl. Over the last two seasons, TCU has recorded victories over Iowa State and Northern Illinois. The win over Iowa State in the 2005 Houston Bowl was TCU's second victory over a Big 12 opponent that season.

LAST THREE YEARS: SIX FROGS DRAFTED

OL ANTHONY ALABI RD 5 Miami

Anthony Alabi was a four-year letterman at TCU and a two-time, first-team All-Conference USA selection. He made 35 career starts, tying for the high mark among the 2004 senior class.

2006

WR CORY RODGERS RD 4 Green Bay

Cory Rodgers was a first-team All-America as a kick returner in 2005. He was the only player in the nation to rank in the top 10 in both kickoff returns and punt returns. Rodgers totaled 150 receptions for 2,111 yards in his three seasons. His 17 receiving TDs are tied with Mike Renfro for TCU's career lead.

OL MICHAEL TOUDOUZE RD 5 Indianapolis

Michael Toudouze started all 12 games at left tackle his senior year and was a first-team All-Mountain West Conference selection. Toudouze was a four-year letterman who helped anchor the line for the MWC's most-productive offense (33.2 points per game) in 2005.

CB DREW COLEMAN RD 6 New York Jets

Drew Coleman totaled five interceptions in his two seasons at TCU after transferring from Trinity Valley Community College. He was a second-team All-Mountain West Conference selection in 2005.

S MARVIN WHITE RD 4 Cincinnati

Marvin White was a first-team All-Mountain West Conference selection as a senior when he topped TCU with 86 tackles and four interceptions. He totaled 153 stops and seven picks in his two seasons with the Horned Frogs.

2007

OL HERB TAYLOR RD 6 Kansas City

Herb Taylor was a 2007 sixth-round draft pick of the Kansas City Chiefs. Taylor started all 49 games in his TCU career and was a two-time, first-team All-Mountain West Conference performer. After playing right tackle his first three seasons, he made the move to left tackle in 2006.

BRIDGE TO THE WORLD

The University is forging
all-new frontiers today.
The explosion of technology.
The reality of a global society.
The wonder found in diversity.
The satisfaction of understanding the world we live in — and making it better.
At TCU, student-athletes find small classes.
Challenging, caring professors.
The Internet at their employ.
Some 200 ways to get involved.
A true opportunity to lead.
Amazing chances to study abroad.
And during the entire college experience,
a special time to grow
as a thinker, writer and speaker.
Learning to change the world isn't just some lofty idea.
For the thousands of students who choose TCU every year, it's what we work toward every day.

"Once our players are on campus, TCU's small class size – a 14 to 1 student-to-teacher ratio – generates an environment where they can be successful. I believe our team's 78 percent graduation success rate is partially attributed to those amenities."

LEADERSHIP COUNCIL TRAITS

- Someone who socially has, and will be, a good representative for us.
- A team player, not a selfish guy.
- A dependable person.
- A fighter when times are tough.
- A guy with character who will be doing the right things when the coach is not looking.
- A guy who will speak up to the team, and will speak for the team.

MISSION STATEMENT

- To provide positive leadership for the team both on and off the field.
- To serve the team and coaches as a means of communication on all issues that arise.
- To be proactive in facilitating academic, social and athletic success of each individual on the team and, most importantly, to the team itself.
- To provide ideas, share experiences and make suggestions for the improvement of the Horned Frog football team.
- To keep in mind that I have been elected by my teammates to represent not just personal thoughts but the team's thoughts.
- To express ourselves as individuals, but to serve as one unified voice in support of the program in good times, but especially in the tough times and on difficult issues.
- To understand it is an honor to be a member of the Leadership Council and that a member must "walk the walk" not just "talk the talk."

Seven years ago, the TCU coaching staff formed a group called the TCU Leadership Council. The group consisted of a player from each position. "We wanted to develop more leadership and create a situation where leadership is passed on from one class to the next," Coach Gary Patterson said. "If the players have the opportunity for input, they have ownership. If they have ownership, then they're more accountable to themselves and to their teammates. It becomes 'our decision,' instead of 'my decision.' "

CHANCE TO GIVE BACK

The community outreach activities conducted by the TCU Athletics Department are as many and as varied as the 20 TCU athletics teams. In the 2006-07 academic year, TCU student-athletes, coaches and administrators made countless appearances in community outreach projects and donated time, talent and resources to a wide variety of different charitable organizations.

CHARITABLE ORGANIZATIONS

SUPERFROG READING CHALLENGE

For the third year, CashAmerica sponsored the SuperFrog Reading Challenge, a program that encourages students in FWISD elementary schools to read. TCU student-athletes and SuperFrog visit the involved elementary schools in both the fall and spring semesters to tell them how important reading is and then explain the program to the students.

CAREER DAYS

Coaches from football, soccer, and swimming and diving, along with members of the athletics department went to elementary schools and described their jobs and how they got to their positions.

COLLEGE BOUND AT TCU

TCU's Education Department invited schools to visit campus in order to gain a glimpse into college life. Members of various athletics programs created a panel for these students who were interested in learning what life is like as a student-athlete at TCU. Members of the football and soccer team made up the panel, along with Showgirls and cheerleaders.

"SLINGIN' SAMMY" BAUGH'S LEGACY

TCU has a proud football tradition that is matched by few. Two-time All-American "Slingin' Sammy" Baugh is an integral part of that.

Baugh had an almost instant connection with TCU. Born March 17, 1914, in Temple, Texas, before moving to Sweetwater, Baugh lived across the street from fellow TCU football legend and All-America center Ki Aldrich.

Baugh led the 12-1 Horned Frogs to the 1935 national championship. The season was capped by a Sugar Bowl victory over LSU and would be the first of two national titles in a four-year period for TCU.

In his final game for the Frogs, on New Year's Day 1937, Baugh led TCU to a 16-6 victory over Marquette in the inaugural Cotton Bowl. It capped a 9-2-2 campaign for the Frogs.

Baugh presided over a golden era of TCU football. The Frogs' 29 victories from 1933-35 and 1934-36 are currently the most for any three-year periods in TCU history.

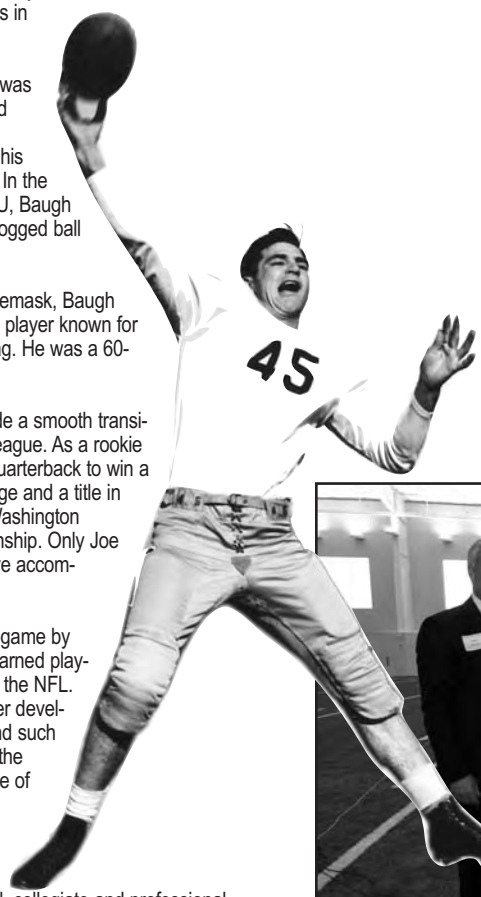
As a junior and senior, Baugh was the nation's leading passer and punter. While his quarterback exploits are well documented, his ability to kick was unheralded. In the 1935 Sugar Bowl win over LSU, Baugh punted 14 times with a water-logged ball for a 45-yard average.

Playing in an era without a facemask, Baugh was also a standout defensive player known for his toughness and hard tackling. He was a 60-minute player.

After leaving TCU, Baugh made a smooth transition to the National Football League. As a rookie in 1937, he became the first quarterback to win a national championship in college and a title in pro football when he led the Washington Redskins to the NFL championship. Only Joe Namath and Joe Montana have accomplished the feat since.

Baugh helped change the pro game by taking much of what he had learned playing for Dutch Meyer at TCU to the NFL. These changes included further development of the forward pass and such plays as the hook and lateral, the halfback option toss and Statue of Liberty.

Baugh, a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, has had his high school, collegiate and professional jersey numbers retired by Sweetwater (21), TCU (45) and the Redskins (33).



> "An indoor football practice facility has become essential in attracting the top prospective student-athletes to campus. The generosity of both the Justin Foundation and Cox Family will enable us to aggressively recruit against the nation's best programs."
> – Coach Gary Patterson

FIELD OF DREAMS

TCU football has called Amon G. Carter Stadium home since 1930. Over the years, continual upgrades have been made to the facility which features a natural-grass field. Most recently, in 2002, a new state-of-the-art football scoring and video system was added. Amon G. Carter Stadium is also the site of the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

BY THE NUMBERS

14 Record for most consecutive victories at Amon G. Carter

47,280 Largest crowd to watch a football game at Amon G. Carter Stadium. TCU hosted Texas in a 1984 Southwest Conference showdown.

1930 Year Amon G. Carter Stadium was built. Besides the addition of the videoboard in 2002, the most recent renovation to the stadium came in 1992 when TCU switched from synthetic turf back to grass.

44,008 Seating capacity of Amon G. Carter Stadium.

87 Percentage of home games TCU has won since 2000 – 34 wins and only five losses.

STADIUM HISTORY

1929-30. Construction – TCU Stadium, with a seating capacity of 22,000, is built to replace old Clark Field.

1930. Dedication – The formal dedication and first game in the stadium takes place on Oct. 11, 1930 with a 40-0 win versus Arkansas.

1948. Television – The first documented telecast of a football game in Amon G. Carter Stadium takes place between TCU and Arkansas on Oct. 2, 1948, a 27-14 Razorback victory.

1948. Expansion – Minor expansions of the stadium's end zone and east seating raises the capacity to 30,500.

1951. Expansion – Further expansion of the stadium's end zone and east side seating increases the capacity to over 33,000.

1951. Stadium Name – In the Dec. 1 game against SMU, TCU Stadium is officially named after Amon G. Carter Sr., publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and a renowned statesman.

1953. Expansion – Phase III of Amon G. Carter Stadium's end zone and east side seating expansion increases capacity to over 37,000.

1956. Upper Deck – The upper deck adds 9,000 seats to the facility for a new capacity of 46,000.

1956. Press Box – The press box, towering over the west stands and hovering some 18 stories above the stadium floor, is built. This two-level facility can accommodate more than 200 members of the media. The structure stretches between the 15-yard lines.

1973. Synthetic Turf – The university installs the first in a series of three synthetic playing surfaces.

1983. New Lighting – A new stadium lighting system is installed. Television camera platforms are also installed below the front edge of the west stands.

1984. Single-Game Attendance Mark – The stadium's all-time attendance record of 47,280 is set on Nov. 17 in a Southwest Conference battle against Texas. The Longhorns won 44-23.

1985. New Seating – Seating in the lower decks on the stadium's east and west sides is replaced with aluminum seats.

1991. Sound System – The stadium's public address system is replaced with an extensive, state-of-the-art sound system. That summer saw the wooden bleachers and fiberglass chairback seats replaced with aluminum seating.

1992. Return to Grass – A natural grass playing surface is installed in the summer. A TIFF 419 variety replaced the latest in a series of artificial surfaces.

1992. Message Center – The summer of 1992 also saw the installation of an electronic scoreboard/message center in the stadium's north end zone, and an auxiliary scoreboard in the southwest corner of the west stands.

2002. Videoboard – Thanks to a gift from the David E. Bloxom Sr. Foundation, a new state-of-the art football scoring and video system was added beyond the north end zone.

2003. Field Name – The playing field was named for W.A. "Monty and Tex" Moncrief, longtime Fort Worth philanthropists.

'REINVENTING ITSELF'

"We've been named one of the nation's Most Liveable Communities. Although we're the 18th largest city in the United States, you won't find a more genuinely friendly and spirited hometown."

– FORT WORTH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

"Things are just teed up for Fort Worth right now. Fort Worth has a history, which people like, but it's also reinventing itself."

– ROB DEROCKER, a New York development counselor

Fort Worth continues to wear its cowboy heritage and exudes a prop-your-feet-up-and-stay-awhile spirit. Smiles and nods are the norm. Optimism, like a friendly handshake, is undeniable. Yet as much as Fort Worth began on the open range, it thrives more today as a cosmopolitan city. It marries a proud cowboy heritage with a distinct sophistication that sets the city apart. Downtown itself is only five miles from campus. Sundance Square invites patrons to enjoy the 20-block entertainment and shopping venue. Where else can you take your pick of more than 25 upscale eateries, see a movie, attend a play, listen to a symphony or dance under the stars – all within walking distance of each other?

WHAT THE HECK IS A HORNED FROG?

- The scientific name for this Texas reptile is phrynosoma cornutum; in Greek, phrynos means "a toad" and soma means "body"; in Latin, cornutus means "horned."
- Their primary diet is red harvester ants; they'd like 80 to 100 a day.
- The typical horned frog is three to five inches long.
- Horned frogs are cold-blooded animals and have an unusual pineal gland, resembling a "third eye" on the top of the head, which zoologists believe is part of their system of thermoregulation.
- When angered or frightened, horned frogs can squirt a fine, four-foot stream of blood from their eyes.
- The horned frog was named the State Reptile of Texas in 1992.

Tradition runs deep at TCU, and begins with the Horned Frog. Some say the frog was chosen because the football practice field was overrun with the small, spiny lizards. Other say its feisty attitude simply matched the tough frontier spirit shown by TCU itself. Other school traditions include TCU's school colors, purple and white. The former represents royalty, the latter a clean game. Swaying while singing the alma mater is a must. So is learning how to do the horned frog hand sign. (Make a peace sign. Now fold those two fingers. Excellent!) And new students may not have any idea what Riff Ram Bah Zoo means now, but they'll soon discover that it's one of the oldest cheers in the country. We also blow the 120-decibel Frog Horn—a real live train horn—after every football score.

TCU TRADITIONS

GOAL SETTING: Prior to every season, a new pyramid of goals dons the walls of the Special Events Room in the John Justin Athletic Center. Once a player or coach commits to the goals, he signs the pyramid.

FROG ALLEY: Carnival-type atmosphere for fans prior to kickoff; extremely family-friendly and adds a lot of excitement to the game-day atmosphere.

BLEACHER CREATURES: Kids get the opportunity to run on the field as the Horned Frogs exit the tunnel.

ALMA MATER: After every game – home or away – the football team joins its fans to sing the alma mater and fight song.

ONE LAST GOODBYE: After their last regular-season practice, the seniors are carried off the field by the underclassmen.

HONORS: With seniors decked out in their tuxedos, the team gets together each year for its celebrated banquet; all seniors – scholarship and walk-on – receive their framed jerseys to recognize their career at TCU. In the past, players have also received their bowl/championship rings at this annual event.

It's a night of no helmets. No pads. Just football players, rock-hard determination and hundreds of pounds of steel weight. They call it Night of Champions, but it's really the culmination of months of off-season conditioning. It's a night of power, ego and testosterone – as in who can lift how much, how many times. "The Night of Champions is a showcase event where some of TCU's strongest athletes compete in the bench press, incline, squat and power clean lifts," said Horned Frog Strength and Conditioning Coach Don Sommer. "The players take pride in their accomplishments in the weight room and work hard to achieve their goals. They know that the hard work they do here will ultimately help them where it counts the most – on the playing field."

MOUNTAIN CLIMBERS

MOUNTAIN WEST AT A GLANCE

AIR FORCE FALCONS
TCU has outscored Air Force 86-24 over the last two years; the Falcons have a new head coach, Troy Calhoun.

BYU COUGARS
Has turned into one of the best rivalries in the MWC; TCU defeated BYU 51-50 in an overtime thriller two years ago.

COLORADO STATE RAMS
TCU has a three-game winning streak against CSU, including a 2002 victory in the Liberty Bowl.

NEW MEXICO LOBOS
Because of UNM's recruiting efforts in Texas, this showdown is heated; the Lobos have mounted come-from-behind efforts only to fall short the last two years.

SAN DIEGO STATE AZTECS
Shutout by the Frogs in 2006, after giving them a lot of trouble in San Diego the year before; usually match up well on skill level.

TCU HORNED FROGS
Has finished first and second, respectively, its first two years in the MWC.

UNLV REBELS
Has been outscored 76-13 over the last two years by TCU.

UTAH UTES
First and only MWC school to play and win a BCS Bowl Game; only conference school to beat TCU on the road.

WYOMING COWBOYS
Cowboys make a strong push in Texas recruiting, which makes for interesting games against the Horned Frogs.

OPPORTUNITY
The MWC provides a first-class athletic and academic experience for over 4,000 student-athletes each year. The past five years, 12 MWC student-athletes have earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, and since the league's inception in 1999, an additional 16 student-athletes were named MWC Student-Athlete of the Year and awarded league-sponsored postgraduate scholarships. Two student-athletes have earned distinction as Rhodes Scholars (Jessica Mellinger, Wyoming and Delavane Diaz, Air Force). Conference student-athletes are also given a voice regarding pertinent issues within the MWC and NCAA governance structure through representation on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). The Mountain West Conference SAAC consists of 10 representatives; one student-athlete from each member institution and one faculty athletics representative. The committee reviews and reacts to legislation and to other topics referred by the Conference constituent groups or committees related to the student-athlete experience.

EXPOSURE
On Aug. 26, 2004, College Sports Television (CSTV) and the Mountain West Conference announced a visionary partnership that revolutionized the college sports landscape. The landmark agreement was the first NCAA Division I football and men's basketball conference-wide deal for CSTV.

EDUCATION INITIATIVES
Not only is the MWC committed to the highest academic standards for its member institutions, the league also launched an education initiative utilizing the platform of college athletics to provide a relevant teaching resource for Kindergarten-through-8th grade students.

FIRST PERSON

On his life away from football
I'm pretty simple. I like to watch TV and eat a lot of ice cream and pecan pie.

On the best advice he ever received from Coach Patterson
He told me to be the hitter...not the "hittee."

On what he likes most about going to school at TCU
The one-on-one communicaton you are able to have with your professors. The small classes make that possible. I've heard it's not like that at larger schools.

On the hardest part of being a student-athlete
(big smile) Scheduling sleep

On why he chose TCU
I wanted to get a great education, participate in great athletics, and be around great people with outstanding personalities.

FIRST PERSON

On his most prized possession
My dad's Bible that he passed away with. It gives me all the strength that I need. It's everything to me.

On his roommate, wide receiver Marcus Brock
He's been a good friend over the years and became a brother – no longer a friend. He's got my back through the ups and downs.

On being Coach Patterson for a day
I would take the day off. He works long hours everyday.

On his jersey number
Since I couldn't get No. 1, I had to get No. 6. It was open, but now I'm six-shooter. That's what my teammates call me.

On signing autographs
Love it! I remember when I was a water boy for my brothers growing up while they played varsity football and wanted to be like them. I always wanted pros' autographs but never got one. I made a promise to myself that I would give autographs to all children.

FIRST PERSON

On signing autographs
I enjoy meeting the people who support our team. When I was young, I always got autographs and promised myself that if I were ever in that position I'd always take the time to do the same.

On his best memory with his teammates
Living my freshman year in Moncrief Hall. It was a great time, and I'll always remember those guys.

On his most memorable road trip with the team
Last year we traveled to Las Vegas and the atmosphere and hotel was great. I pretty much hung out all night with Buc (Eric Buchanan) and Tookey (Brian Bonner) laughing.

On his hidden talent
I'm a crazy chef! Sauces and desserts are my specialty. I'm also quite the handy man around the house.

On the number he wears
There is nothing really significant about it. When I first arrived, they said I looked like LaTarance Dunbar. I love single digits, so I do enjoy wearing the No. 3.

FIRST PERSON

If I were athletic director for the day, I would Allow student-athletes to skip class for the day, due to all the hard work we put in during the summer.

If I were Coach Patterson for the day, I would Treat the team to an all-you-can-eat buffet.

On his most prized possession
It's my apartment. It allows me to get away from everything. I don't have any roommates. I like it that way. Total control.

On his best memory with his teammates
Beating Oklahoma! You should have heard how quiet it was up there – 90,000 (fans) sounded like 10 or 15,000.

On any hidden talents he has
I don't have one. You stumped me on that one.

On his nickname "Stunt"
Combination of a long first year and the fact my incoming class used to get a little crazy.

On signing autographs
I like doing it for little kids. They always think and treat you like a superstar. Makes the both of us feel good.

FIRST PERSON

On living in Fort Worth
I love it here in Fort Worth. Great place to start a family. A lot of great opportunities in the metroplex, big city and lots of things to do.

On when he realized he was talented enough to play football on the collegiate level
When the entire town (Beeville) used to compliment me on how good I was, and how much potential I had, along with all the awards I received in football. My dad and people of my town and other cities used to tell me I had something special.

On his legacy at TCU
That I was accountable and hard working on and off the field. I always did what was asked of me. I was a great player. I was what you call a well-rounded complete team player.

On his pre-game rituals
Get a massage to get loose, along with some heat pads. Listen to my greatest hit list songs and think about what I am going to do to make them remember.

On how he got his nickname, Coop
When I was a young boy, I had really chubby cheeks which made me resemble Mark Curry from "Hanging with Mr. Cooper" the TV series. I can't really remember who started it. I just remember a classmate used to say, "You look like Coach Cooper from the show." Ever since then, I have been known as Cooper. What's funny is some people don't even know my real name.

Personal: Parents are Darla Englert and the late Rick Englert... an advertising/public relations major.

FIRST PERSON

On what he likes most about going to school at TCU
I have to say the people I've met and the town. I absolutely love Fort Worth and all the friends I've made here.

On his best memory with his teammates
It would have to be living in Moncrief Hall. It was crazy fun. I wish we all could go back for a semester.

On the best advice from Coach Patterson
"Do what you have to do to be happy." Coming from Coach P, that inspired me.

On his professional plans
Architect, executive at an advertising agency, or my favorite, stay involved with sports. I would love to work with any of my hometown professional sports teams (Texans, Rockets, Astros).

On signing autographs
It makes my hands hurt, but I'll do anything to put a smile on someone's face.

On his legacy at TCU
I know there won't be much athletic achievements individually because of injuries, but I wouldn't mind being the guy who coaches talk about for years to come as someone who sold out his senior season and played his tail off.

On his life after football
I expect life after football to be stable, and a grind. I expect to have to continue to work hard to get where I want to be.

On his legacy at TCU
I want to be known as the guy that came to work every day and did what it took to make myself and my team better.

On his pre-game rituals
Every pre-game, I focus in on the little things it will take in order for me to play effectively. And I put it in my head that I will back down from "No" challenges.

On going home (to Corsicana)
The first thing I do is hug my mom and show my family I care and miss them.

On why he chose TCU
I chose TCU for both the educational and athletic aspects. I felt like it would be a place that would really prepare me for life.

On his life away from football
I'm just a real simple guy who loves to play football. I like to hunt and fish, and I'm a really good welder. I've been doing it since I was in the ninth grade. I can weld anything.

On doing this Q&A
It's really not my favorite thing, because I'm kind of quiet and keep to myself. This is a little different than a lot of interviews, so it's not too bad.

On his best memory with his teammates
It's hard to pick just one, because I love hanging out with my boys. We've had a lot of great times.

On his hidden talent
I guess it's not hidden anymore – welding.

On his favorite part of playing football
I love game day, but I also love everything leading up to game day. I'm not going to say I love practice, but I understand it's part of it. I like getting as strong as possible in the weight room.

On what he likes most about going to school at TCU
Professors push students to be great. I like the small student population, and everyone at TCU is friendly.

On his best memories with his teammates
Just being on the field with them. We sweat and put a lot of work into being a successful football program.

On his life away from football
I like to play golf, go to the movies and hang out with my friends.

Describing Coach Patterson in three words
Intense, driven and passionate. You know that when you are dealing with him, you are going to get his best effort.

On the hardest part of being a student-athlete?
Dividing your time. A student-athlete has to be able to say "no" to people when you are needing to get work done and they want to do something else.

On what he wants to be when he grows up
Collegiate Athletic Director

On signing autographs
I like it, because it gives you a chance to be a role model for the kids and encourage them to work hard.

On what he wants his legacy to be at TCU
I want to be the best safety that has ever come, on the best team that has ever played here.

2006: Started 11 of 13 games… missed the Utah contest due to injury … 26 of his 33 tackles were solo stops… placed in a tie for third on the Frogs with four pass break-ups… recorded a season-best five tackles in wins over Baylor, San Diego State and Air Force… had a tackle for a loss and a pass break-up to go with three stops in the 12-3 victory over Texas Tech… forced a fumble while adding a pass break-up in the Air Force game… posted a tackle behind the line of scrimmage as part of four solo stops versus BYU… also broke up a pass against the Cougars.

2005: Started the opening two games and played in 11 of 12 contests... tied for eighth on the team with 41 tackles (25 solo)... closed the season strong with five stops, including one for a loss, and a fumble recovery in the 27-24 EV1.net Houston Bowl win over Iowa State (Dec. 31)... opened the campaign with six tackles, a forced fumble and pass breakup in the 17-10 win at Oklahoma (Sept. 3)... totaled a career-high 10 stops and his first career interception in the 51-50 overtime victory at BYU (Sept. 24)... his other pick on the year came in the end zone at San Diego State (Oct. 29) after the Aztecs drove to the TCU 2 trailing by just seven in the fourth quarter... also totaled four stops that night as the Frogs won 23-20 at Qualcomm Stadium... had a six-tackle game at SMU (Sept. 10)... broke up a pass in the 33-6 Mountain West Conference championship-clinching victory over Colorado State (Nov. 5).

2004: Started the Houston and Cincinnati games and played in 10 games overall, missing only the SMU contest... recorded 19 tackles, including nine solo stops... had three four-tackle games.

2003: Showed tremendous athletic ability before suffering a season-ending knee injury early in fall camp.

High School: First team all-District 3-5A performer at Abilene High... named to the all-Big Country Super Team... recorded 89 tackles as a senior, broke up four passes, caused one fumble and recovered another... selected TCU over Arizona State and Oklahoma State.

FIRST PERSON

On why he chose TCU
My senior year, I sent letters to my top five Division I-A football programs (UCLA, USC, Notre Dame, Miami, and TCU). Coach (Eddie) Williamson was the only person who cared enough to take the time and send a response.

On what he likes most about going to school at TCU
Every aspect of daily life requires personal attention, which is something that you may not receive at a larger university. This helps to form great relationships between coaches and players, or teachers and students.

On his legacy at TCU
I want to be remembered as one of the hardest working walk-ons to ever wear a TCU jersey, and for people to know that everything I accomplished was because of my work ethic.

Describing Coach Patterson in three words
Intense – every time he steps onto the football field he becomes a general and accepts nothing but the best. Passion – his passion for football and being an honest human being leads others by example. Successful – he is one of the winningest coaches in TCU football history.

On living in Fort Worth
I love it. It has a small town feel with everything at your finger tips.

Describing Coach Patterson in three words
Tough. Extreme. Relentless.

On what he expects life to be like after football
Hopefully less pain.

On his legacy at TCU
On a personal level, I don't want and/or need to have a legacy. I'm a very humble guy. But from a team perspective, I want to be known as a bunch of guys who play tougher than our opponent every single week.

On his pre-game rituals
I run through the plays in my head and then get taped, stretch and dressed.

On going home to his parents (Brenham)
You know what's funny, I consider Fort Worth my home now.

GARY PATTERSON

Head Coach
Seventh year

THE PATTERSON FAMILY Blake, Kelsey, Cade, Gary, and Josh

Since taking over the helm of the Horned Frogs in December 2000, Gary Patterson has become synonymous with TCU football.

Patterson has put together four 10-win seasons in the last five years. No other coach in TCU history has more than two 10-win campaigns. Including his time as an assistant, Patterson has taken part in five of the Frogs' nine 10-win seasons all-time. He has also been a part of eight bowl games in nine years at TCU.

TCU is one of only five teams in the nation to record three 11-win seasons in the last four years. The others are USC, Oklahoma, LSU and Boise State.

During Patterson's tenure as head coach, the Frogs have been ranked in the final Top 25 poll four times in six seasons.

With a 27-21 victory at New Mexico in 2006, Patterson became the fastest coach in TCU history to reach 50 wins. His 54-20 record in six seasons is the best mark of any TCU coach after 74 games. He already ranks third on the Frogs' career victory chart.

Patterson's .730 winning percentage is second all-time among TCU coaches with more than 20 games under their belt. He is 13th in winning percentage among active coaches in Division I-A.

The Frogs are 8-1 in their last nine games against teams from leagues with automatic BCS bids, including a 4-0 mark versus the Big 12 the past two seasons.

Patterson was the 2005 Mountain West Conference and 2002 Conference USA Coach of the Year. He was a 2003 finalist for Eddie Robinson and Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year honors. He also appeared on the 2006 Bobby Dodd Watch List.

In six seasons as a head coach, Patterson has coached 64 All-Conference selections, five All-Americans, seven Freshman All-Americans and one Academic All-American.

In both its seasons in the Mountain West, TCU has set the pace on the all-conference teams. The Frogs had 18 selections in 2005 and 14 in 2006.

In his tenure as TCU's head coach, Patterson has had 16 players drafted with a total of 30 in NFL camps.

An 11-2 record in 2006 included wins over Big 12 opponents Baylor and Texas Tech as well as a 37-7 victory over Northern Illinois in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

The Frogs' defense ranked second nationally in run defense (60.8 yards per game) and total defense (234.9 yards per game) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game). The defensive unit, with nine starters returning in 2007, posted its best numbers in all three categories during Patterson's time as head coach.

TCU won its last eight games in 2006 for the fourth-best current winning streak in the nation, trailing only Boise State (13), BYU (10) and Wisconsin (9).

The Frogs' eight consecutive wins came by an average margin of 24.4 points. During that stretch, the TCU defense allowed per game marks of 10.8 points, 59.6 yards rushing and 185.1 in total offense.

In 2005, Patterson led the Frogs to the Mountain West Conference championship in their first season of league play.

RECORDS
TCU

It was also TCU's first outright conference championship since 1958. The Frogs posted an 11-1 record for just the fourth 11-win season in school history and the second in three years.

TCU also recorded its first undefeated league mark (8-0) dating back to 1938. Patterson has taken part in four conference titles with the Frogs.

The Frogs opened and closed the 2005 season with victories over Big 12 teams. Following a 27-24 EV1.net Houston Bowl win over Iowa State, Patterson saw TCU climb to ninth in the USA Today poll and 11th in the Associated Press poll. It was TCU's highest season-ending ranking since 1959.

TCU, picked to finish sixth in 2005 preseason MWC polls, opened the campaign with a 17-10 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma. It was TCU's first win against an opponent ranked that high since a 6-0 victory over No. 1 Texas in 1961.

The Frogs were 14th in the final BCS standings. TCU has appeared in the BCS standings 20 times, tied with Boise State for the most among schools from a non-automatic qualifying conference. The closest programs in that category are at 12 times.

Patterson's success in 2005 was achieved while playing a total of 21 redshirt or true freshmen, tying for fourth nationally in that category.

The 2005 Frog defense led the nation in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). The offense set a single-season school record with 50 touchdowns while its 398 points scored ranked second all-time at TCU.

Setting the pace nationally in defensive categories is nothing new for Patterson. His teams led the country in defense during the 2000 and 2002 campaigns. In 2002, the Frogs allowed only 64.8 rushing yards per game - ranking first in that category as well.

Of the nine head coaches in the Mountain West Conference, only two - Colorado State's Sonny Lubick and New Mexico's Rocky Long - have accumulated more head coaching experience at their current school than Patterson. Prior to taking the top spot at TCU, Patterson spent three years as the Frogs' defensive coordinator and safeties coach.

TCU has been no stranger to the post-season in the Patterson era. The Frogs have emerged victorious five times in their run of eight bowl games in nine seasons, including a 17-3 win over MWC champion Colorado State in the 2002 AXA Liberty Bowl.

In his first full season as head coach with the Frogs in 2001, Patterson was one of only eight coaches with no previous Division I head coaching experience to lead their teams to bowl appearances. He proceeded to take the Frogs to a bowl in each of his first three years.

Patterson's 10-2 record and conference championship in the 2002 season earned him Conference USA Coach of the Year accolades. The Frogs finished the season ranked 22nd in the USA Today/ESPN poll and 23rd in the Associated Press top 25.

Eleven of Patterson's 54 career wins came in the Horned Frogs' 2003 campaign, when TCU climbed as high as sixth in the BCS rankings - the highest ranking at the time for a school from a non-automatic qualifying conference.

Under Patterson's guidance, the Frogs got off to a 10-0 start after opening the season ranked 25th in the Associated Press poll. They finished the season 11-2 and ranked in the top 25 for the second year in a row - the first time that had happened at TCU since the 1950s. His leadership of the 2003 squad made him a finalist for both the Eddie Robinson and Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year honors. He was also named an assistant coach for the Hula Bowl.

In 2004, the Frogs finished in the top 20 in the nation in scoring offense, passing offense and total offense. The Patterson chapter of TCU football, however, has been dominated by a tradition of defense. Since 1999, the Frogs have been ranked in the top five nationally in total defense four times.

Patterson amassed 18 years as an assistant coach, including three with the Frogs, before taking the torch from Dennis Franchione prior to the 2000 GMAC Mobile Alabama Bowl.

In 1998, Patterson's first season at TCU, the Horned Frogs scored a school-record six defensive touchdowns, intercepted 12 passes and allowed only 19.6 points per game - the fewest points per game in over 30 years. It was accomplished by a team that was 1-10 the previous season.

Patterson's 1999 TCU defense ended the season ranked fifth in the country in total defense. The Frogs posted two shutouts and led the Western Athletic Conference in every major defensive category.

In 2000, the Frogs allowed only 245.0 total yards and 9.6 points per game, ranking first in the nation in both categories. Five of Patterson's players earned first-team all-conference recognition and he was a finalist for the Frank Broyles National Assistant Coach of the Year award.

Prior to his arrival in Fort Worth, Patterson spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at New Mexico. The Lobos collected 22 total takeaways and three defensive touchdowns in 1996. The next year, in Patterson style, New Mexico improved their total takeaways to 29, including 16 interceptions.

A true defensive specialist, Patterson had a similar impact at Navy. In just one season as the Midshipmen's secondary coach in 1995, he helped elevate the defense in the national rankings. Navy finished 18th in total defense, 17th in scoring defense and 28th in pass defense efficiency.

Patterson's defensive acumen dates back to his own playing days at Kansas State, where he played strong safety and outside linebacker for the Wildcats in 1980 and 1981.

He served as a graduate assistant in 1982 and received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983. He took the linebacker coaching position at Tennessee Tech while earning a master's degree in educational administration in 1984.

Patterson has been part of 11 bowl staffs, including one each with Kansas State, Utah State and New Mexico. The other eight have come at TCU.

Aside from being an accomplished Division I head coach, Patterson is also a skilled guitar player. On several occasions, Patterson has entertained TCU fans with his guitar skills at pep rallies around the Fort Worth area.

A native of Rozel, Kansas, Patterson is married to the former Kelsey Hayes. He has three sons: Josh (19), Cade (12) and Blake (8).

PATTERSON PHILOSOPHY

On the University

"TCU is a special school. People come first at TCU. It's a place that when you graduate from here, people know who you are – you weren't just another number that walked through the line. When you only graduate 1,500 students a year, you have made yourself different. The size lends itself to a family atmosphere, which blends with the philosophy of our program. It is a very user-friendly school – one where you can get a quality education, have a great deal of friends, know people on campus and be more than a number. TCU is a very special and unique school."

On himself as a head coach

"I feel I'm a player's coach. The kids can come and talk to me. They understand that I am all business when I step on the practice field, but when it's over, they know that they are going to be helped as they go on with their lives. You're more than just a football player at TCU. I think that is proven by our graduation rates. We push the kids to take care of their business in the classroom. Since we've been here, most of our players have graduated and many have worked on their master's degrees while completing their fifth year of eligibility. When you graduate the student-athletes and also have a chance to win a conference championship, we're fulfilling every step possible for a player."

On his expectations for the team

"The top of our pyramid goal is to win a national championship. Whether people believe it's conceivable or not, that's our ultimate goal. We climbed to sixth in the BCS poll in 2003 and had a chance to be the first school from a non-BCS conference to play in one of the major bowls. We talk here about only one rule for the players – act right. Make sure that you don't embarrass yourself, your university, your teammates or your family. We want our players to be the best that they can be. They are held accountable for their actions. If you are not accountable, it's very hard to stay within our program. Our ultimate goal is not just to prepare you for the four or five years you are here, but to prepare you for the next 40 to 50 years. When you leave here, you understand how to compete to be successful. The kind of people we want to recruit are those who want to compete. When you have those kind of people, you win a lot of football games. You have guys who can count on each other when it's fourth and one."

On leaving early for the NFL

"If you are a certain first round pick, I think there's a lot of merit in leaving early. We don't stand in the way, but would advise our kids that the only round you would want to leave early for is the first round. Ultimately, the most important thing that you can do at TCU is get your degree."

HISTORY
TCU

On Texas high school football

"I love coaching in this state because football is important. The high school coaches do a great job of running their programs and developing players. We do not have to go very far, as exemplified by our recruiting class, to find good football players that can help us be very competitive here at TCU. It is nice to be able to recruit players that know how to play the game and have a great work ethic, because it has been developed in the high schools."

On two-sport athletes

"As long as the athlete can be a major contributor in both sports, I'm willing to work with two-sport athletes. If they are doing the other sport just to be doing it, I don't think it's a positive for either sport. He's not giving either team a chance to be the best that it can be. We probably back that up as much as any other university. We've had Royce and Chad Huffman play baseball, Nick Browne play soccer and several guys like LaTarence Dunbar, Reggie Harrell, Tyrone Sanders, Michael DePriest, Otis McDaniel, Quincy Butler, Cody Moore and Clint Renfro compete on the track team."

On a college football playoff

"Being at a non-BCS school, I'd like to see the system changed. I think ultimately what you want to find out is who's the best team in college football. Right now, it's a situation where I'm not sure you do find that out. I think a playoff system would serve that purpose. My biggest worry with a playoff system is the physical nature of the game. I don't know how many more games young men could handle playing over the course of a season. In some seasons, teams may play 13 or 14 games. Ultimately, I think it really takes a toll on those kids. The older players really take the punishment. There's a fine line on that. I think you could get it down to eight teams. I think there has to be an answer for all those out there who think we have to have a national champion."

On the Horned Frogs' offense

"Coming in as a defensive coach, I think people were wondering what we would be offensively. I think you found out that we are very multiple. Our system is such that it is going to use the people we have to the best of their abilities. We went from running the football - being a power team or running the option - to throwing it 35 to 50 times a game. Sometimes people think of us as an option school and we're not. We are a multiple offense that will take what people will give us - tailored to fit the abilities of our players."

On TCU's defense

"We are a pressure-oriented defense – an attacking style of defense – one that makes things happen without giving up big plays."

JARRETT ANDERSON

Wide Receivers
Seventh year

THE ANDERSON FAMILY Jarrett, Aidan, and Lisa

Jarrett Anderson is in his seventh year as the TCU wide receivers coach and 10th overall with the Frogs.

Under Anderson's tutelage, three TCU receivers in the last five years have been drafted by NFL teams.

Cory Rodgers was a fourth-round pick by Green Bay in 2006, while Adrian Madise and LaTarence Dunbar were selected in the fifth and sixth rounds in 2003 by Denver and Atlanta, respectively. All three finished their careers in the top 10 of various TCU receiving categories.

Reggie Harrell, who signed as a free agent with Dallas, became the school's first 1,000-yard receiver in 2003 with the Horned Frogs.

During his three-year career, Rodgers tied Mike Renfro's career TCU mark of 17 receiving touchdowns.

Both Harrell and Rodgers rank among the top 10 in school history in career receptions and yards while earning all-conference recognition.

In 2006, Quentily Harmon closed his career as TCU's ninth-leading receiver with 111 catches. In addition, Michael DePriest was signed as a free-agent in 2007 by Indianapolis.

Prior to assuming his current duties, Anderson served on the TCU coaching staff as a graduate assistant from 1998-00, working primarily with the Frogs' offensive line.

Anderson spent one season (1997) as an assistant coach at Tyler Junior College, where he worked with the running backs and receivers. He began his collegiate playing career at Tyler before transferring to New Mexico. He lettered for the Lobos in both 1992 and 1993.

Anderson graduated from New Mexico in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in university studies and earned a master's degree in TCU's MLA program.

Anderson and his wife, Lisa, have a son: Aidan.

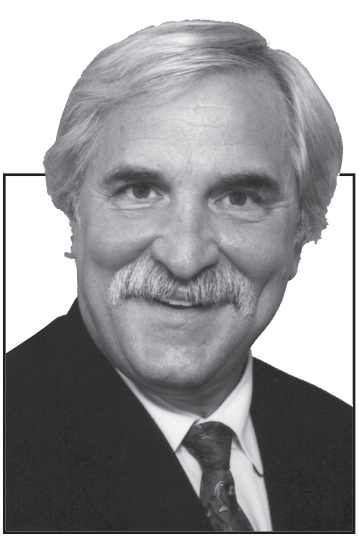
DICK BUMPAS

Defensive Coordinator/
Defensive Line
Fourth year



THE BUMPAS FAMILY Gloria and Dick

Dick Bumpas joined TCU in February 2004 as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach.

Bumpas first worked with Horned Frog coach Gary Patterson at Kansas State in the early 1980s. He was the Wildcats' defensive line coach in 1981 when Patterson was a senior linebacker. Patterson then became a Kansas State graduate assistant in 1982 and joined Bumpas on staff.

The duo also worked together at Utah State from 1992-94 and at Navy in 1995. At both places, Bumpas was the defensive coordinator while Patterson was the secondary coach.

Bumpas has been ranked by Rivals.com as the seventh-best defensive coach in the nation for 2007.

The 2006 TCU defense ranked second nationally in run defense (60.8 yards per game) and total defense (234.9 ypg.) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game).

Bumpas has coached defensive ends Tommy Blake and Chase Ortiz to first-team All-Mountain West Conference honors the last two seasons.

Bumpas was nominated for the 2005 Frank Broyles National Assistant Coach of the Year award. He was named the Rivals.com National Defensive Coordinator of the Week in 2005 following the Frogs' season-opening 17-10 win at Oklahoma. TCU held the Sooners to 225 yards of total offense and the second-lowest point total in coach Bob Stoops' tenure in Norman.

The 2005 TCU defense led the nation in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). The Frogs topped the Mountain West Conference with 41 sacks and allowed just three touchdowns in their final three games, keeping their opponent out of the end zone for 10 quarters from Oct. 29 at San Diego State to the Dec. 31 EV1.net Houston Bowl.

In a coaching career that has spanned 29 years, Bumpas has won championships in four different conferences and coached at all three service academies. He has also coached in 14 bowl games. Bumpas came to TCU after serving as Western Michigan's defensive coordinator for one season. The 2003 Broncos' defense was second in the Mid-American Conference in sacks (35) and featured a pair of All-MAC performers in Jason Babin and Jack Gitler.

Bumpas worked at the University of Houston from 1999-02, serving as assistant head coach and linebackers coach and later as co-defensive coordinator, installing the 4-2-5 defense in his initial season. Houston finished 25th in the nation in total defense that first year while ranking 20th against the run and 22nd in scoring defense. In 2001, Bumpas coached Wayne Rogers, the Conference USA Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

Prior to his stint at Houston, Bumpas worked four seasons at the U.S. Naval Academy as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and defensive line coach. His 1997 Navy unit ranked sixth in total defense and turnover margin. At season's end, he was invited to coach in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game. In 1996, Bumpas' defense held California to just three second-half points in an Aloha Bowl victory.

Bumpas spent three seasons (1992-94) as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Utah State, helping the Aggies to a 1993 Big West Championship and a Las Vegas Bowl victory over Ball State.

Other coaching stops include two seasons as defensive line coach at Notre Dame (1990-92), during which time he mentored 1990 Lombardi Award winner Chris Zorich. In 1989, Bumpas coached the defensive line at his alma mater, Arkansas, a team that went on to win a Southwest Conference title and advanced to the 1990 Cotton Bowl.

Bumpas coached seven years in the Volunteer state, splitting time between the University of Tennessee (1985-89) as linebackers coach/special teams coordinator and Tennessee Tech (1983-84) as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. With the Vols, Bumpas coached three bowl championship teams (1986 Sugar, 1986 Liberty, 1988 Peach) and was part of the SEC championship squad in 1985.

Bumpas began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1977. From there, he went to the U.S. Military Academy and implemented a new defense under Homer Smith in 1978. Installing new defenses would become a trend for Bumpas, who did the same thing as defensive line coach at the Air Force Academy during a two-year tenure (1979-80) with the Falcons.

A native of Fort Smith, Ark., Bumpas received three varsity letters and was a captain for the Razorbacks. He was named SWC Defensive Player of the Year in 1970, earning consensus All-America honors at defensive tackle. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas in 1973. He went on to play tight end and linebacker professionally for the Memphis Southmen in the World Football League and the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League.

Bumpas is a 2006 inductee into the University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor.

Bumpas is married to the former Gloria Surratt.

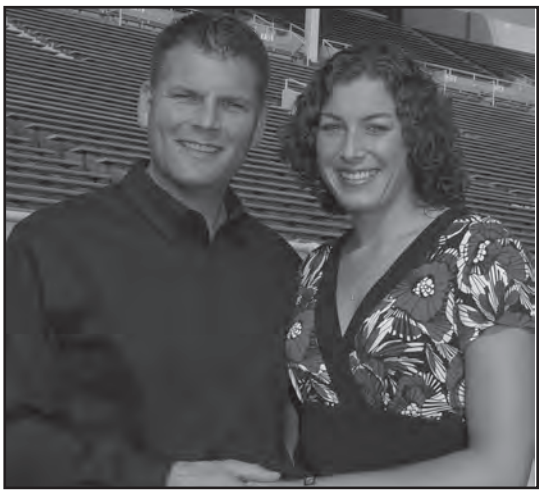
JUSTIN FUENTE

Running Backs
First year



THE FUENTE FAMILY Justin and Jenny

Justin Fuente joined the TCU football coaching staff in February 2007 as running backs coach.

Fuente filled an opening with the Horned Frogs after quarterbacks coach Dick Winder announced his retirement following five seasons at TCU and 41 years in the coaching profession. TCU offensive coordinator Mike Schultz then switched from running backs coach to quarterbacks coach.

Fuente came to TCU after spending the last six seasons as quarterbacks coach at Illinois State. The past three years saw him double as the Redbirds' offensive coordinator.

Fuente played two seasons (1996-97) at Oklahoma under Winder. At the time, Winder was the Sooners' offensive coordinator. Fuente set an Oklahoma freshman record with 11 touchdown passes. He then transferred to Murray State for his final two years of eligibility.

Fuente set 11 school records at Murray State, including total offense and passing yards in a game and season. He was the Ohio Valley Conference Offensive Player of the Year and a finalist for the Walter Payton Award, given annually to the nation's top player in Division I-AA.

Under Fuente's direction, Illinois State ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense the last two seasons. The Redbirds placed eighth in 2006 with an average of 397.5 yards per game after ranking fifth in both total offense (477.6 yards) and scoring (39.2 points) in 2005.

Fuente coached Redbird quarterback Luke Drone to first-team All-Gateway Conference honors as he led the league in passing (227.8 yards) and total offense (231.6 yards). Running back Pierre Rembert set an Illinois State single-season record while ranking sixth nationally in rushing with 1,743 yards (134.1 per game).

Following his collegiate career, Fuente played professionally with the Oklahoma Wranglers in the Arena League. A 1999 graduate of Murray State, Fuente is a native of Tulsa, Okla.

Fuente's wife, Jenny, was the associate head coach for the Illinois State volleyball team.

CHAD GLASGOW

Safeties
Seventh year

Chad Glasgow

Chad Glasgow, a member of Gary Patterson's first staff at TCU, is in his seventh season as the Horned Frogs' safeties coach.

In 2006, Glasgow coached Marvin White to first-team All-Mountain West Conference honors while Brian Bonner was a second-team selection. In addition, White was a fourth-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals.

White and Jeremy Modkins were All-MWC in 2005.

Since arriving at TCU, Glasgow also tutored all-conference safeties Kenneth Hilliard, a free-agent signee with the Buffalo Bills, and Marvin Godbolt, who inked a professional contract in the Canadian Football League.

Glasgow coached safeties, including 2000 Southland Conference Player of the Year C.J. Carroll, at Southwest Texas State from 1998-00.

Prior to his stint at Southwest Texas State, Glasgow spent one year at Illinois State as the linebackers coach. He mentored a pair of all-conference selections during his time in Normal, Ill.

Glasgow also had coaching stops as a graduate assistant at both Oklahoma State (1994-95) under Bob Simmons and New Mexico (1996) with Dennis Franchione. Patterson was the Lobos' defensive coordinator that season.

A three-year letterwinner, Glasgow played linebacker at Oklahoma State. He earned his bachelor's degree from OSU in business administration in 1995.

FROG FACT COACHES
Over the last six seasons, TCU has had seven all-conference selections at safety under Chad Glasgow.

CHARLES McMILLIAN

Cornerbacks
Fourth year

THE McMILLIAN FAMILY Mykayla, Cydryce, and Charles

Charles McMillian joined the TCU staff in January 2004 and has served as cornerbacks coach throughout his time in Fort Worth.

With freshman corners Rafael Priest and Nick Sanders starting all 13 games in 2006, TCU allowed just nine touchdown passes. Sanders was an honorable-mention Freshman All-American.

McMillian coached All-Mountain West Conference corners Drew Coleman and Quincy Butler in 2005. Coleman was a sixth-round draft pick of the New York Jets, while Butler was a free-agent with the Dallas Cowboys.

Prior to his arrival at TCU, McMillian spent two seasons as the cornerbacks coach at Indiana University (2002-03). Before taking on his duties with the Hoosiers, McMillian worked one year at the University of Cincinnati (2001) where he helped the Bearcats to a 7-5 record and the Motor City Bowl.

Previous to his tenure at Cincinnati, McMillian logged stints at Utah State, Boise State and the United States Naval Academy.

He began his coaching career as a student assistant at Utah State for spring practice in 1995 while finishing his undergraduate degree.

McMillian departed Utah State in 1995 for the first of two coaching tenures at Navy. He spent three years (1995-97) as a military assistant coach, serving as secondary coach for the junior varsity team while assisting during varsity defense and special teams practices.

McMillian left Navy to become the secondary coach at Boise State in 1998, a position he held for two years. The Broncos posted a 10-3 record in 1999 with a victory over Louisville in the Humanitarian Bowl.

McMillian returned to Navy as a secondary coach in 2000, helping safety Chris Lepore earn All-America honors.

McMillian was a Utah State captain for two years (1993-94). The Aggies won the Big West title and appeared in the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl.

A native of Bryan, Texas, McMillian is a 1995 graduate of Utah State with a degree in science and liberal arts.

McMillian married the former Cydryce Carter in 2005. He has two daughters: Cherrelle and Mykayla.

FROG FACT COACHES
Despite starting a pair of redshirt freshmen at cornerback in all 13 games last season, TCU allowed just nine touchdown passes to tie for the fifth-lowest total in the nation.

MIKE SCHULTZ

Offensive Coordinator/
Quarterbacks
10th year

THE SCHULTZ FAMILY Taylor, Cindy, Mike, Jordan, and Kendall

The longest tenured assistant coach at TCU, Mike Schultz is in his 10th season directing the Horned Frogs' multiple offense. He serves as both offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Schultz was the running backs coach his first nine years at TCU. With the retirement of quarterbacks coach Dick Winder in February 2007, Schultz has taken over the quarterbacks with Justin Fuente hired to coach running backs.

Three of the four highest-scoring teams in TCU history have come under Schultz's direction, including a school-record 410 points in 2000 and the 2005 total of 398 which placed second.

The 2005 Frogs set a single-season school record with 50 touchdowns. The other top marks for touchdowns (49, 2000; 48, 2004) also came under Schultz.

Since Schultz's arrival in 1998, the TCU running game has consistently been among the best in the nation. The 2006 team ranked ninth in rushing (194.6 yards per game) and 17th in total offense (408.5 ypg.).

During his time as running backs coach, Schultz made a habit of developing young players at the position.

Prior to Aaron Brown receiving 2005 Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year honors as a true freshman, Lonta Hobbs and Robert Merrill became the only two freshmen in TCU history to rush for 1,000 yards. The duo accomplished the feat in back-to-back seasons (Hobbs 2002, Merrill 2003).

Schultz has tutored a 1,000-yard rusher in five of his nine campaigns in Fort Worth - with Basil Mitchell, LaDainian Tomlinson (twice), Hobbs and Merrill each earning that distinction. Prior to Schultz's arrival, TCU had boasted just four 1,000-yard rushers in more than 100 years of college football.

Under the direction of Schultz, Tomlinson was a two-time NCAA rushing champ, leading the country with 1,850 yards in 1999 and a school record 2,158 in 2000. He earned All-America honors, was a Heisman Trophy finalist and the winner of the Doak Walker National Running Back Award. With Tomlinson leading the way, the 2000 Frogs ranked fourth in the nation, averaging 275.6 rushing yards per game. Tomlinson parlayed his success into a top-five draft pick and a standout NFL career which includes 2006 MVP honors.

The Frogs can do more than just run the ball. In 2003, TCU was one of just six schools to average over 200 yards rushing and 200 passing per game. The following year, the Frogs ranked among the nation's top 20 teams in scoring, total offense and passing offense. The 362 points scored tied for the second-highest total in school history, while the 48 touchdowns were just one shy of the school record set in 2000. TCU also recorded three of the top-11 passing games in school history during the 2004 campaign.

Schultz served six seasons at New Mexico, the first four as the assistant head coach and secondary coach and the final two as the assistant head coach and running backs coach.

The Houston native began his coaching career at his alma mater, Sam Houston State, in 1979. Schultz then assisted at UTEP and Kansas State. His next stops were with Fred Akers' staff at Texas for one season (1985) and three years at Round Rock (Texas) Westwood High School as an assistant. He joined Dennis Franchione at Southwest Texas State in 1990.

Schultz and his wife, the former Cindy Graham of Houston, have three daughters: Taylor, Kendall and Jordan.

DAN SHARP

Special Teams Coordinator/
Tight Ends
Seventh year

THE SHARP FAMILY Andrea, Dan, Cindy, and Alexandra

One of the more popular players to ever don the Purple and White, Dan Sharp is in his seventh year during his second stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater.

A 2005 inductee into the TCU Lettermen's Hall of Fame, Sharp returned to the Horned Frogs' staff in 2001 as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. He previously coached for nine seasons at TCU before heading to Tulsa in 1998.

TCU tight ends totaled seven touchdowns on 33 receptions last season.

Under Sharp's leadership, Matt Schobel was the second pick in the third round of the 2002 National Football League draft and the 67th player selected overall.

In 2004, Cody McCarty garnered first-team all-league honors.

Sharp has coached TCU placekicker and two-time All-Mountain West Conference selection Chris Manfredini to a 25-of-27 mark on field goals the last two seasons. Additionally, Peter LoCoco was 9-of-12 in 2006.

Placekicker Nick Browne and punter Joey Biasatti were semifinalists for the Lou Groza and Ray Guy Awards, respectively, during the 2002 campaign. Browne earned All-America honors and was the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Year in 2003.

Sharp previously coached at TCU (1991-97) under both Jim Wacker and Pat Sullivan. He mentored the tight ends for five years and handled the defensive ends for two seasons. Before joining the TCU staff on a full-time basis, Sharp served as a graduate assistant under Wacker.

Sharp was a tight end on TCU's 1984 team which finished the regular season with an 8-3 record in earning a trip to the Bluebonnet Bowl. He had a key touchdown reception in a 32-31 win at Arkansas, the Frogs' first victory in Fayetteville in 29 years.

In addition to providing some outstanding blocking for TCU's vaunted running attack, Sharp earned All-Southwest Conference honors in 1984 as he caught 42 passes for 596 yards and seven touchdowns.

Sharp spent two seasons in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons before returning to his alma mater in 1988.

He received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from TCU in 1985 and his master's degree in liberal arts in 1992.

Sharp and his wife, Cindy, both natives of Boerne, Texas, are the parents of two children: Alexandra and Andrea.

TONY TADEMY

Linebackers

THE TADEMY FAMILY Victor, Maria, Tony, and A.J.

Tony Tademy is in his third season at TCU after joining the Horned Frog football staff in June 2005.

TCU's top three linebackers in 2005 featured a pair of redshirt freshmen (Jason Phillips, Robert Henson) and a sophomore (David Hawthorne). That season, Phillips became the first freshman defensive player in Mountain West Conference history to be named first or second-team all-league. He was also a Freshman All-American. Henson earned honorable mention All-MWC accolades.

In 2006, Phillips was selected first-team All-MWC with Henson repeating as an honorable-mention pick.

Prior to arriving at TCU, Tademy spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator at McKinney (Texas) High School.

Tademy has been in the coaching profession since earning his bachelor's degree in general studies from Louisiana Tech in 1983. He has split time between the high school and university settings, primarily between the states of Texas and Louisiana. While an undergrad, he played linebacker and helped the Bulldogs to a pair of Independence Bowl appearances.

Tademy's first full-time assistant coaching stint came at Virginia Military Institute (VMI) from 1985-86. He served as the linebackers and defensive line coach, working with current TCU assistant head coach and offensive line coach Eddie Williamson.

Tademy coached one season at his alma mater, serving as the inside linebackers coach in 1987, before leaving the profession for a year. He returned to the coaching ranks in 1989 as the offensive line and specialists coach at Howard University in Washington, D.C. He also coached the linebackers and was the recruiting coordinator in his three-year stint at Howard.

After one year as the defensive line coach at Northeast Louisiana University and a short stay at Suitland (Md.) High School, Tademy spent three seasons (1994-96) at the University of Houston where he worked with the defensive ends under coach Kim Helton and helped the Cougars to the 1996 Liberty Bowl.

Tademy returned to the high school ranks as an assistant coach at Texas City (Texas) High School from 1997-98, before taking over as the defensive coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette from 1999-01. He spent one season as the defensive coordinator at Blinn College before becoming the defensive coordinator at McKinney in 2003.

A Jacksonville, Ark., native, Tademy and his wife, Maria, have two sons: A.J. and Victor.

FROG FACT COACHES
Under Tony Tademy in 2005, Jason Phillips became the first freshman defensive player in league history to be an All-Mountain West Conference selection.

EDDIE WILLIAMSON

Assistant Head Coach/
Offensive Line
Seventh year

THE WILLIAMSON FAMILY Eddie and Patty

A veteran of the collegiate coaching ranks, Eddie Williamson is in his seventh season at TCU as the offensive line coach. He was given the additional title of assistant head coach in 2002.

Williamson has coached three All-Mountain West Conference selections in each of the last two seasons, including repeat first-team tackle Herb Taylor. The Kansas City Chiefs made Taylor a sixth-round draft pick in 2007.

Michael Toudouze was a first-team All-MWC choice in 2005 before becoming a fifth-round selection of the Indianapolis Colts.

With four new starters on the offensive line, TCU allowed just 15 sacks in 2006. It was the lowest total in the Mountain West Conference and tied for the sixth-best mark nationally. In 2005, with three new starters, the Frogs surrendered the league's second-fewest sacks.

With Williamson's troops paving the way, the Frogs have produced a pair of 1,000-yard rushers and a Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year in the last six seasons.

Williamson came to Fort Worth from Wake Forest, where he served as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. He joined the WFU staff in January 2000, after previously working as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Texas Southern.

Prior to his tenure at Texas Southern, Williamson served as an assistant coach at Baylor (in both 1983 and 1998), North Carolina (1993-97), Wake Forest (1991-92), South Carolina (1989-90), Georgia (1984), Duke (1978-82) and Furman (1974-75, and 1977). In most of those stints, he had a hand in working with the offensive line.

Williamson also has experience as a head coach, serving in that role at VMI from 1985-88.

A part of 14 bowl teams, Williamson's college coaching career began soon after graduating from Davidson College in 1974.

A native of Pendleton, S.C., Williamson was a standout linebacker for three seasons at Davidson (1971-73). He graduated in 1974 and went on to earn his master's degree from Furman in 1976, where he served as a graduate assistant.

He also spent one year (1976) at North Carolina as the football team's academic counselor.

Williamson is married to the former Patricia Ogle of High Point, N.C. They have three children: Eddie III, Carrie Beth and Tricia.

DON SOMMER

Strength and Conditioning
Seventh year

THE SOMMER FAMILY Cindy, Kaylin, Don, and Dayne

Don Sommer is in his seventh year as TCU's head strength and conditioning coach after arriving on campus in January 2001.

In his capacity, Sommer is responsible for the overall direction, design and implementation of strength and conditioning programs for all sports at TCU.

In the 2005-06 athletics season, TCU led the nation with five football players and a total of 10 student-athletes receiving All-America honors from the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

Sommer came to TCU after serving in a similar capacity at the University of Missouri for two years. He had been part of the Tiger program since 1989, serving first as a graduate assistant for two years before assuming the assistant strength and conditioning coaching post in 1991.

Sommer was one of 10 individuals to receive the prestigious certification of "Master Strength & Conditioning Coach" at the 2003 Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA) national conference. He joined the existing 26 Master Strength & Conditioning Coaches, bringing the total number of MSCCs in the world to 36 at the time of his certification.

Sommer is a graduate of the University of Texas-El Paso with a bachelor's degree in education. He was a four-year letterman and starter for the Miners' football squad and went on to play professionally with the Buffalo Bills and Indianapolis Colts.

Sommer returned to the classroom following his playing career and earned his master's degree in health education from Missouri.

Sommer and his wife, Cindy, have two children: Dayne and Kaylin.

THE BROADDUS FAMILY Bennett, Cathy, and Bryan

BRYAN BROADDUS

Asst. Director of Operations

First year

Bryan Broaddus, owner of a Super Bowl ring, is in his first season as TCU's assistant director of football operations.

Broaddus brings 13 years of National Football League experience to the Horned Frogs. He helps coordinate team travel for TCU while organizing and maintaining the recruiting database. Broaddus is the liaison to high schools and junior colleges for recruiting purposes in addition to being the pro scout contact.

As Green Bay's college scouting administrator from 1992-97, Broaddus was part of the 1996 Super Bowl champion Packers. He was the first employee hired by general manager Ron Wolf for the college scouting department.

After leaving Green Bay, Broaddus was instrumental in running the 1998 NFL Draft for the Philadelphia Eagles. Four of the team's eight selections that season made the 2005 Pro Bowl.

Broaddus also worked with the Jacksonville Jaguars before spending six seasons (1999-2004) as the assistant director of pro personnel with the Dallas Cowboys. Among his myriad of duties, Broaddus did advance scouting, wrote reports for free agency, built boards and notebooks for meetings with owner Jerry Jones and was involved in the Cowboys' War Room on draft day as a source of other team's needs and possible trades.

A 1988 graduate of LSU, Broaddus was a varsity letterman in football for the Tigers. He then continued in the college ranks as a graduate assistant recruiting coordinator at Texas A&M.

Broaddus has also done work for 103.3 ESPN Radio in the Fort Worth-Dallas market, providing analysis of the Cowboys as well as being part of the station's coverage of the NASCAR races at Texas Motor Speedway.

Broaddus and his wife, Cathy, have a son: Bennett.

TREY HAVERTY

Graduate Asst. Defense

First year

Former Texas Tech All-American wide receiver Trey Haverty is in his first season as a graduate assistant with the TCU defense.

Haverty joins the Horned Frogs after serving as wide receivers coach at Cisco Junior College in 2006. His first coaching position was at Midlothian High School in 2005.

As a senior at Texas Tech in 2004, Haverty led the Big 12 in receptions (77) while placing second in receiving yards (1,019). He was a second-team All-American by Sports Illustrated and a third-team Associated Press pick.

Haverty had a career-best 11 catches for 158 yards and two touchdowns in a 42-17 win over Baylor. In his final collegiate game, he recorded eight receptions for 147 yards in a 45-31 Holiday Bowl victory versus California. He also went over 100 yards receiving against New Mexico (8-117) and Kansas (8-143).

Haverty had 110 receptions for 1,326 yards and seven touchdowns in his Red Raider career (2001-04).

CHRIS GILLERT

Graduate Asst. Offense

First year

Chris Gillert is in his first season as the graduate assistant for the TCU offense.

Gillert, who will work with the offensive line, will assist in the breakdown of opponent defenses as well as the game plan. He originally came to TCU in January 2007 as the graduate assistant for video. He moved to the offensive side of the ball in June.

Gillert previously served two years as the wide receivers coach at Trinity Valley Community College. He helped lead the Cardinals to 2005 conference, region and Pilgrim's Pride Bowl championships. Trinity Valley topped the Southwest Junior College Football Conference that season in total offense with 386 yards per game.

In 2005, Gillert coached the top two and four of the conference's top 10 receivers.

Prior to his tenure at Trinity Valley, Gillert worked two years as the wide receivers coach at Canton High School.

A 2000 graduate of UT-Tyler, Gillert was a two-year starter at tight end for Abilene Christian (1994-96).

Freshman QB Leads TCU to Comeback Win

(1-0, 0-0 MWC)

Frogs stretch win streak to 11 games

WACO (AP) - With undefeated TCU starting quarterback Jeff Ballard woozy on the sideline and unable to play, coach Gary Patterson only had one real option. Freshman Marcus Jackson filled in nicely, and made sure the No. 22 Horned Frogs avoided being on the wrong side of a season-opening upset with a 17-7 victory at Baylor.

"He was the only person we had left," Patterson said. "It was either going to be him or me throwing."

Jeff Ballard wasn't feeling right after taking some hard hits in the first meeting between the old Southwest Conference rivals in 11 years. Jackson found out just before the second half that he was replacing the senior starter, then threw for 148 yards and two touchdowns.

"It was crazy. I had a couple of warmup throws, maybe three or four," Jackson said. "I mainly snapped with the center."

Jackson, who completed 11-of-14 passes, finally put the Horned Frogs ahead with an 84-yard TD pass to tailback Aaron Brown after Baylor's second turnover in the third quarter. He threw a 4-yard score to Quinton Cunigan in the fourth quarter.

TCU, unranked when it beat No. 7 Oklahoma 17-10 in last year's season opener, stretched its winning streak to 11 games -- the second-longest in Division I-A.

Ballard's three TDs lead TCU to 12th straight win

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Aaron Brown was again the only one of TCU's top three tailbacks dressed to play. He came through with another impressive performance. Brown ran for 73 yards and two touchdowns, taking option pitches to the right and to the left for scores, and caught five passes for 59 yards as the No. 23 Horned Frogs beat UC Davis 46-13 for their 12th straight victory -- the nation's longest I-A streak.

Senior running backs Robert Merrill (back) and Lonta Hobbs (foot), both who have had 1,000-yard seasons, haven't played in either game for TCU (2-0). Brown has made sure they haven't been missed too much.

"I'm trying to be versatile and keep defenses off key so they don't know if I'm going to run or catch," said Brown, who finished with 132 total yards.

Brown had 156 total yards in the season-opening 17-7 victory at Baylor, the sophomore's first career start. He ran 15 times for 49 yards and caught four passes for 107 yards, including the go-ahead 84-yard TD in that game.

Ballard was 18-of-23 passing for 190 yards with two touchdowns and ran for another score in his three quarters against UC Davis. He has been the starter in the last 10 TCU wins since replacing injured senior Tye Gunn last season.

Frogs Shut Down Texas Tech Attack, Win 12-3

(3-0, 0-0 MWC)

TCU wins 13th straight behind four Manfredini field goals

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Defensive end Tommy Blake and some of his TCU teammates got together two days before playing Texas Tech and watched the tape of a loss to the Red Raiders two years ago.

The sequel was much better for the No. 20 Horned Frogs. TCU got the ultimate revenge, holding No. 24 Texas Tech's pass-happy offense without a touchdown in a 12-3 victory.

Chris Manfredini kicked four field goals and TCU (3-0) won its 13th straight game.

TCU's winning streak is the longest in NCAA Division I-A, and one short of the school record.

The only other time the Red Raiders (2-1) didn't score a touchdown in Mike Leach's 79 games over the last seven seasons was in a 56-3 loss to Nebraska in 2000, the coach's first year. They scored less than 10 points only one other time, a 42-7 loss at Texas in 2001.

Texas Tech had only 242 total yards, and its opening drives of both halves ended on failed fourth-down conversions. Quarterback Graham Harrell fumbled twice after being sacked and there was also a blocked punt.

TCU's Jeff Ballard completed 13-of-23 passes in improving to 11-0 as the Frogs' starting quarterback.

A punt block by TCU linebacker Robert Henson helped set up one of Manfredini's field goals.

Frogs Win Streak Snapped By Cougars

(3-1, 0-1 MWC)

Ballard throws for 302 yards and a touchdown in 31-17 defeat

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Jeff Ballard and TCU couldn't pull off another comeback against BYU.

John Beck threw for 321 yards and three second-half touchdowns to lead BYU to a 31-17 victory that ended No. 17 TCU's winning streak at 13 games. The streak was the longest in NCAA Division I-A.

BYU (3-2, 1-0 Mountain West) beat a Top 25 team for the first time since 1999, a stretch of 12 games since a victory over Colorado State. The Cougars went to double overtime at then-No. 23 Boston College earlier this month before losing 23-20.

Ballard, who was 26-of-49 for 296 yards with a touchdown and an interception, lost for the first time in 12 starts as TCU's quarterback. He has started every game since after taking over late in the third quarter at BYU last September when the Frogs trailed by 16 points, then rallied to win 51-50 in overtime.

A Ballard 2-yard scoring pass to Brent Hecht pulled TCU within 17-10 with 6:04 left in the third quarter.

Chris Manfredini had a 36-yard field goal for TCU late in the first half after seeing his streak of made attempts over two seasons end at 19.

It was the first Mountain West loss for the Frogs, who made their debut in the conference by sweeping through eight league games last season.

Game 5: Utah 20, TCU 7

Oct. 5 • Salt Lake City, Utah • Attendance 43,790• Rice-Eccles Stadium

Utah Hands Horned Frogs Second Straight Loss

(3-2, 0-2 MWC)

Jackson 11-for-19 for 158 yards after relieving starter Ballard

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) - Brett Ratliff passed for 223 yards and two touchdowns as Utah defeated TCU 20-7.

The Horned Frogs played without injured tailback Aaron Brown and starting safety David Roach, while ailing quarterback Jeff Ballard played just the first half.

The Utes forced three fumbles in the fourth quarter, converting one into a field goal and ending a huge scoring threat with another after TCU got inside the Utah 20 with 7 minutes left in the game and the Frogs within two touchdowns of taking the lead.

TCU finished with 310 yards, but 141 came in the fourth quarter as the Frogs frantically tried to rally.

Marcus Jackson was 11-for-19 for 158 yards after relieving Ballard in the third quarter. Ballard hurt his throwing shoulder the week before in a 31-17 loss to Brigham Young, which snapped the nation's longest winning streak at 13 games.

After Lonta Hobbs got TCU within 10-7 on a 1-yard run in the second quarter, Ratliff unloaded the longest pass of his career and got a break that turned it into a touchdown.

On first down from the TCU 49, Ratliff went for the end zone. His pass was a little short and TCU's Steven Coleman had time to get under it, but he tipped the ball right to Brent Casteel in the end zone and the Utes took a 17-7 halftime lead.

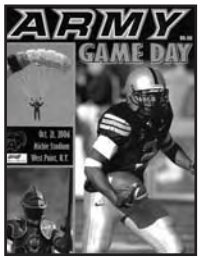
Strong First Half Propels TCU over Army

(4-2, 0-2 MWC)

Frogs turn four second-quarter Army turnovers into 24 points

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) - TCU overcame a fumble on the opening kickoff to play a dominating first half and defeat Army 31-17.

Austin Miller gave Army a 3-0 lead less than two minutes into the game. It was the last time the Black Knights (3-5) led.



After going up 7-3, the Horned Frogs (4-2) turned four second-quarter Army turnovers into 24 points for a 31-3 lead at halftime. TCU outgained Army 274 yards to 31 in the first 30 minutes. Nick Sanders made two interceptions, returning the second one 21 yards for a touchdown.

"That was the group that I saw a year ago when we led the nation in takeaways," TCU coach Gary Patterson said. "We were flying around and having fun making plays."

TCU - which came in after 16 days off - finished with 359 yards to Army's 196.

"Sixteen days or five days off, they're going to come out and play," said Army safety Caleb Campbell. "They're a great team."

Sanders' interceptions came during a spell in which Army lost the ball three consecutive times on its first play from scrimmage. TCU followed each turnover with a touchdown, and then forced a fumble on the kickoff following the third TD, leading to a field goal 14 seconds before halftime.

Frogs Down Wyoming To Get First MWC Win

(5-2, 1-2 MWC)

Ballard racks up 244 yards passing in home victory

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Jeff Ballard carved up Wyoming's nationally top-ranked pass defense for 244 yards to lead TCU to a 26-3 win.

The Cowboys (4-5, 3-2 Mountain West Conference) entered the game allowing just 121 passing yards and 227 total yards per game.

On TCU's first possession, Ballard drove the Frogs (5-2, 1-2) 85 yards, with 80 of the yards on four passes, for a 6-0 lead.

The big play was a 42-yard pass to Quentily Harmon.

Lonta Hobbs scored the touchdown from one yard out, bouncing off a pileup and running to his right into the end zone.

After the Cowboys fumbled away the kickoff, TCU (5-2, 1-2) added a 22-yard field goal by Peter LoCoco.

A 45-yard pass to Harmon set up Peter LoCoco's 33-yard field goal with 4:31 left in the third quarter to make it 12-0.

On TCU's next possession, from its 20, Ballard spotted Donald Massey open over the middle. He took the pass 77 yards to the Cowboys 3. On the next play, wide receiver Marcus Brock carried three yards into the end zone.

TCU came back with Ballard passing the ball to Harmon at the Wyoming 1. Hobbs scored on the next play.

TCU's 432 yards were the most against Wyoming this season. The Frogs' defense held the Cowboys to 165 yards.

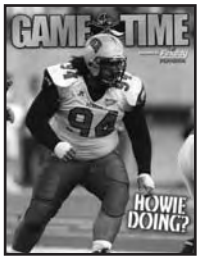
Frogs Defeat UNLV, Start New Winning Streak

(6-2, 2-2 MWC)

Ballard throws for 195 yards and runs for 84 more in road victory

LAS VEGAS (AP) - Quarterback Jeff Ballard threw for 195 yards and ran for 84 to lead TCU over UNLV 25-10.

Ballard was 15-for-28 with a touchdown pass to Michael DePriest from 34 yards with 5:02 left in the second quarter that gave the Horned Frogs a 19-3 halftime lead.



Ballard did not throw an interception and carried the ball 14 times.

Aaron Brown rushed for 60 yards with a touchdown for TCU (6-2, 2-2 Mountain West), scoring from 11 yards out with 10:35 left in the first quarter to give the Horned Frogs a 6-0 lead. He also caught three passes for 52 yards.

Lonta Hobbs rushed for team-best 93 yards on 15 carries for the winners.

TCU kicker Peter LoCoco made all four of his attempted field goals, including one from 42 yards and another from 40.

UNLV (1-8, 0-5) has lost eight straight after opening the season with a win.

The Frogs totaled 445 yards of offense and controlled the clock, holding the ball for over 36 minutes.

The TCU defense held quarterback Rocky Hinds to 128 yards on 10-for-27 passing with one interception.

Trailing 25-10 with 8:12 left in the game, Rebels defensive lineman Starr Fuimaono recovered a TCU fumble at the Horned Frogs 3-yard line. But two plays later TCU's Marvin White intercepted a Hinds pass, nullifying any UNLV hopes.

TCU Holds Off New Mexico in Albuquerque

(7-2, 3-2 MWC)

Horned Frogs win fourth straight, start to climb into MWC race

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) - Defensive end Tommy Blake returned a fumble 12 yards for a touchdown and Brian Bonner's late interception preserved TCU's 27-21 win over New Mexico on Saturday night.

Bonner's interception of a Chris Nelson pass at the TCU 9 with 22 seconds left sealed the win for TCU, which nearly squandered a 24-0 halftime lead.

The Horned Frogs (7-2, 3-2 MWC), won their fourth straight and snapped New Mexico's (5-5, 3-3) three-game winning streak.

New Mexico got within 24-21 with 13:45 to play.

After Chris Manfredini kicked a 37-yard field goal to give the Frogs a 27-21 lead, New Mexico drove to the TCU 20. On third-and-18, Nelson overthrew a receiver and Bonner picked it off.

TCU took advantage of early New Mexico mistakes to build its halftime lead.

Lobo starting quarterback Donovan Porterie fumbled the snap on the second play from scrimmage and Blake picked up the ball and reached the end zone untouched.

The Frogs scored again after Bonner returned a punt 27 yards to the New Mexico 38. Five plays later, Lonta Hobbs scored from the 2.

Bonner set up the Frogs' third touchdown with a 22-yard punt return prior to an Aaron Brown 24-yard scoring run.

Frogs Dominate Aztecs at Home

(8-2, 4-2 MWC)

Jeff Ballard throws for a school-record tying five touchdowns

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Jeff Ballard threw for a school-record tying five touchdowns and ran for a score as TCU beat San Diego State 52-0 for its fifth straight win.

Ballard was 20-of-23 passing for 288 yards as TCU (8-2, 4-2 Mountain West) posted its most lopsided win since defeating SMU 62-7 in 2000.

The Frogs were forced to punt on their first possession, but scored points on their next eight drives.

San Diego State (2-8, 2-4) couldn't mount much against the TCU defense. The Aztecs only had 87 yards of offense and turned the ball over twice. They also had a punt blocked in the first half.

San Diego State had two first downs on its opening drive and only one - by penalty - the next seven times it touched the ball.

And while the Aztecs were misfiring offensively, Ballard was having one of the best games of his career.

Ballard completed 14 straight passes before missing late in the first half. On the next play, Ballard found Quentily Harmon for 30 yards. That set up Ballard's 4-yard touchdown run which put the Horned Frogs ahead 38-0 at halftime.

Ballard's 18-yard pass to Donald Massey gave TCU a 7-0 lead. He followed with scoring passes of 44 yards to Shae Reagan, 30 yards to Harmon and five yards to Massey.

On TCU's first drive after halftime, Ballard threw a 33-yard strike to Massey for his fifth TD pass to tie a Frog mark.

Game 11: TCU 45, Colorado State 14

Nov. 25 • Fort Collins, Colo. • Attendance 16,146 • Hughes Stadium

Frogs Have No Trouble With Rams

(9-2, 5-2 MWC)

Aaron Brown runs for a career-high 166 yards, scores three times

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) - Aaron Brown scored three touchdowns and rushed for 166 yards and TCU won its sixth straight with a 45-14 victory over Colorado State.

Quarterback Jeff Ballard rushed for two touchdowns and threw for another. Ballard was 17 of 25 for 238 yards against Colorado State. He didn't play in the fourth quarter.

Brown's 45-yard touchdown sprint in the third quarter was TCU's longest run of the season. He also had touchdowns runs of 1 and 28 yards in the second quarter.

TCU (9-2, 5-2 MWC) generated 606 yards of offense - their second straight with more than 600 - and never punted.

The Rams (4-7, 1-6 MWC) dropped their sixth straight game.

TCU found itself in an unusual situation in the first quarter - trailing. The Frogs, down 7-0 early, hadn't been behind in a game in more than 19 quarters.

The deficit didn't last long as TCU scored 31 straight points before halftime.

Ballard's 54-yard touchdown pass to Brent Hecht was his 11th scoring toss of the season.

Trailing 7-3 in the second quarter, the Frogs lined up for a 30-yard field goal, but the Rams jumped offsides to keep the drive alive and send TCU on its four-touchdown spree before halftime.

TCU Downs Air Force In Regular-Season Finale

(10-2, 6-2 MWC)

Horned Frogs have now won 10 games in five of seven seasons

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - TCU didn't overlook its regular season finale, even with a bowl berth already in hand.

Jeff Ballard completed all 12 of his passes and ran for a touchdown in the first quarter and the Horned Frogs dominated throughout for their seventh straight victory, 38-14 over Air Force to reach 10 victories for the fifth time in seven seasons.

Air Force (4-8, 3-5 Mountain West) had just 128 yards of offense.

Ballard, one of 22 TCU seniors playing his last home game, was 21-of-26 for 234 yards and a touchdown while playing three quarters.

TCU scored on all four of its first-half possessions to build a 24-0 lead.

The Horned Frogs scored early in the third quarter, when Torrey Stewart returned an interception 20 yards for a touchdown.

On the game's opening drive, Ballard completed seven passes for 58 yards before Hobbs scored on a 12-yard run, going untouched into the end zone on a run up the middle.

Ballard hit five more passes on the next drive, ending that with a 1-yard keeper that made it 14-0 after the first quarter.

Quently Harmon made an acrobatic play to put TCU up 21-0, when he caught a pass and was knocked off his feet. He came down on a bent leg at the 3, but his knee never touched the ground and wound up in a scrum of players, pushing forward into the end zone to cap a 97-yard drive.

Game 13: TCU 37, Northern Illinois 7

Dec. 19 • San Diego, Calif. • Attendance 29,709 • Qualcomm Stadium

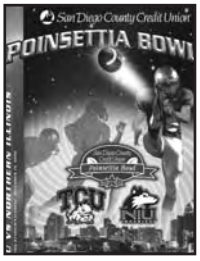
No. 25 Frogs Stymie NIU's Vaunted Rushing Attack

(11-2, 6-2 MWC)

Jeff Ballard rushes for three touchdowns, throws for another

SAN DIEGO (AP) - Penned in by a bunch of tough Horned Frogs, Garrett Wolfe had nowhere to run.

The national rushing leader was held to 28 yards, a whopping 130 below his average, and No. 25 TCU won a Poinsettia Bowl mismatch against Northern Illinois 37-7 on Tuesday night.



While Wolfe was repeatedly stuffed by one of the nation's best defenses, led by end Tommy Blake, Horned Frogs quarterback Jeff Ballard ran for three touchdowns and threw for another.

Ballard looked more like a running back as he scored on runs of 10, 1 and 6 yards. He threw a 6-yard TD pass to tight end Brent Hecht and finished with 258 passing yards.

TCU's Lonta Hobbs rushed for 114 yards and one TD.

TCU (11-2) won 11 games for the third time in four years, all under coach Gary Patterson. NIU finished 7-6.

Wolfe, a senior from Chicago, came in leading the nation with an average of 158.3 yards rushing and 178.9 all-purpose yards.

The Horned Frogs, though, were fourth nationally in run defense after allowing only 67.6 yards per game. TCU kept alive its string of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, one of only four teams to do so this year.

Wolfe, who carried 20 times, came dangerously close to his career-low of 24 yards set in his first game, the 2004 season opener. The Huskies had only five first downs and 60 yards of total offense, compared to 23 first downs and 456 yards for TCU.

Wolfe was thrown for losses on four of his 10 carries in the first half, when he accounted for just 8 yards.

The Huskies had minus-13 yards and went three-and-out six straight times before Dan Nicholson completed a 62-yard pass to Matt Simon on third-and-12 from the Huskies' 11-yard line in the second quarter. All that did was set up a missed 51-yard field goal by Chris Nendick.

NIU got to the TCU 18-yard line late in the third quarter before turning the ball over on downs. The Huskies gained 52 yards on that drive; up until then, they'd gained only 45.

NIU's only score came when John Tranchitella returned a blocked punt 32 yards with 14:14 left. Jarret Carter blocked Brian Cortney's punt and the ball bounced back toward Cortney's hands, but Tranchitella swooped in and grabbed it.

NIU blocked two punts and a PAT.

Hobbs scored on a 4-yard run on TCU's first drive.

Early in the second quarter, Ballard dropped back to pass on third-and-9 from the NIU 10. He scrambled left, cut inside and then dove into the end zone. Chris Manfredini kicked a 25-yard field goal as the clock expired for a 16-0 halftime lead.

Ballard scored twice in just less than 3 minutes in the third quarter for a 30-0 lead. He ran a 1-yard keeper, then added a 6-yard run when he rolled left, couldn't find a receiver and tumbled into the end zone.

Ballard was 19-of-29 passing. Nicholson was 6-of-18 for 80 yards, with one interception.

The game drew only 29,709 on a cold night at 70,000-seat Qualcomm Stadium.

Among the fans were San Diego Chargers running backs LaDainian Tomlinson, who went to TCU, and Michael Turner, who played for NIU.

With TCU winning, Turner will have to wear Tomlinson's No. 5 Horned Frogs jersey around Chargers headquarters.

The Poinsettia Bowl is sponsored by the San Diego County Credit Union.

PASSING RECORD:

Record book loses battle with TCU QB

It was a record-setting day for TCU when the Horned Frogs stood toe-to-toe with the 1990 Houston Cougars, who had one of the most prolific offenses ever in college football.

Houston eventually rolled past TCU, 56-35, but not before countless records – school, conference and NCAA – were broken.

Frogs' quarterback Matt Vogler helped account for nine of those shattered marks.

His 690 yards passing set new school, conference and NCAA records. He also helped the Frogs set the most yards offense by a losing team (736). Along with his Cougar counterpart, David Klingler, Vogler helped set records for combined total offense (1,563) and most yards passing by opposing teams (1,253) – both SWC and NCAA marks.

Vogler still holds three TCU records for passing – all were set in that 1990 game at The Astrodome.

The previous NCAA mark for passing yards in a game was held by Utah's Scott Mitchell when he threw for 631 yards against Air Force in 1988. Houston's Andre Ware held the conference record with 517-yard performance against SMU in 1989.

Vogler connected with eight different receivers, but Steven Shipley carried most of the load. He finished with 11 receptions and 154 yards – both career bests.

Vogler had two big strikes against Houston. He had an 80-yard TD pass in the first quarter and an 88-yard touchdown toss in the second quarter.

Vogler, who also holds the second-most passing yards in a game with 419, is 282 yards in front of No. 3 on the all-time list, Steve Stamp.

RECEIVING RECORD:

Two big TDs help Oliver set record

Two big air strikes accounted for 151 of Jimmy Oliver's 206 yards in TCU's Southwest Conference showdown with Texas Tech in 1994, but it was his other five catches for a modest 55 yards that catapulted him into the Horned Frog record book.

Late in the fourth quarter, Oliver – who already had touchdown receptions of 89 and 62 yards – caught a two-yard pass from quarterback Max Knake to move ahead of Vernon Wells for the school's record for most receiving yards in a game.

Oliver's record-setting day, which was 12th best in the SWC at the time, helped lead TCU past Texas Tech, 24-17.

The 18-year-old record came under attack in the second quarter when Knake hit Oliver in stride at the Frogs' 30-yard line. The sprinter from Adamson High School in Dallas did the rest. He raced 89 yards to complete the one-play, 11-second drive.

That score gave TCU an early 10-0 advantage.

Oliver, who was well known for his blazing speed, was a Southwest Conference indoor 55-meter and 55-meter hurdles champion. There was a rumor that he clocked a 4.15 in the 40-yard dash on one occasion.

His speed showed up again in the third quarter, when Oliver and Knake teamed up for a 62-yard strike down the middle of the Red Raider defense.

Oliver's second touchdown put TCU in front of Texas Tech, 16-14, but the Frogs had to rally again in the fourth quarter to defeat the Red Raiders in front of 43,219.

Before Wells set the record of 204 yards in 1976 versus Tennessee, TCU's receiving record was 37 years old. Earl Clark held the mark that Wells broke, 177 yards on 10 catches, since 1939. He set the record against Temple.

RUSHING RECORD:

LT sets mark with 406-yard, 6 TD day

LaDainian Tomlinson broke the NCAA Division I-A rushing record, gaining 406 yards and scoring six touchdowns in TCU's 52-24 victory over Texas-El Paso.

Tomlinson carried 43 times and topped the record held by Tony Sands of Kansas, who rushed for 396 yards on 58 carries against Missouri on Nov. 23, 1991.

"All the credit goes to the offensive line. They've done a great job of creating holes all season," Tomlinson said. "I need to buy them a couple of steaks."

While Tomlinson is the first major-college rusher to gain 400 yards in a game, he is the sixth overall in the NCAA. The record is 441 yards by Dante Brown of Division III Marietta College in 1996.

Touchdown runs of 70 and 63 yards on consecutive carrries in the fourth quarter got Tomlinson close to the record. So even with a 45-25 lead, TCU sent him back out for its final drive of the game, and he broke the 400-yard barrier with a seven-yard carry.

"If he's so close to something like that, you've got to let him finish it off," said TCU coach Dennis Franchione. "After three first-half turnovers, I was a little punchy about what to call in the second half. The smart thing to do was to give the ball to No. 5."

General

TCU is ready to embark upon its 111th year of Horned Frog football. Through all the years, with the exception of 1900, Purple ballclubs have competed on an organized basis. Even during the war years, as well as through the Great Depression, each fall Horned Frog football squads have done battle on the gridiron each fall.

TCU was originally known as AddRan College and located in Waco, Texas. The name of the school was changed to Texas Christian University in 1902. The nickname Horned Frogs came from "the abundance of those creatures around campus."

Beginnings

The newfangled game of football, created in the East, made a quiet and unofficial appearance on the TCU campus (AddRan College as it was then known and located in Waco, Texas, or nearby Thorp Spring) in the fall of 1896. It was then that several of the college's more robust students, along with the enthusiastic support of a couple of young "profs," Addison Clark, Jr., and A.C. Easley, banded together to form a team. Three games were actually played that season ... all after Thanksgiving. The first contest was an 8-6 victory over Toby's Business College of Waco and the other two games were with the Houston Heavyweights, a town team.

By 1897 the new sport had progressed and AddRan enlisted its first coach, Joe J. Field, to direct the team. Field's ballclub won three games that autumn, including a first victory over Texas A&M. The only loss was to the University of Texas, 18-10. Those games with the Aggies and Longhorns launched football feuds that carried forth for 99 years. In 1899, the first game with Baylor was played to launch still another traditional rivalry. By 1902, the name of the school had been changed to Texas Christian University. The nickname, "Horned Frogs," had been added a few years earlier because "of the abundance of those creatures around campus."

TIAA Era

In 1909, the university became a member of the old TIAA (Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association). Several TCU teams recorded outstanding records, including the 1912 Horned Frog unit, which had an 8-1 mark with the lone loss coming against Texas, a team that the Frogs did not beat until 1929.

In 1920, a post-World War I team produced TCU's best record to date, winning nine straight games in the regular season. However, a post season bowl (the Dixie Bowl) contest was booked in Fort Worth with the famed "Prayin' Colonels" of Centre College. That proved to be a mistake as Centre trounced the Purples, 63-7. L.R. (Dutch) Meyer was an end on that TCU grid eleven.

TCU

Southwest Conference Early Years

In 1923, TCU was admitted to the still-infant Southwest Athletic Conference, a league which was destined to become the major collegiate league of the Southwest. In their initial season in the SWC, the Horned Frogs played three games and posted a record of two wins and one loss.

Though a young member of the SWC, over the next few years the Horned Frogs still offered some excellent results. In 1924, they won one and lost five games to finish in the cellar for the only time until 1953. In 1929, under the late Francis Schmidt, TCU claimed its first SWC title. Led by a brilliant young quarterback, Howard Grubbs, who later became the executive secretary of the Southwest Conference and the Horned Frogs' first in a line of great passers, TCU won four straight league games.

The Frogs clinched their first title with a 7-7 tie against SMU in the final contest of '29. During Schmidt's regime, which lasted through the 1933 campaign, the Frogs were double tough. They finished third in 1930, second in '31 and won the SWC title again in 1932 with a perfect 6-0 record. It was the first time that one Southwest Conference team had defeated all the others, since a round robin had not been played in any of the previous seasons.

The 1970s

The decade of the 1970s was, for the most part, one of disappointment for the fans of TCU football. Fred Taylor, the successor to Abe Martin in 1966, guided Horned Frog teams through four seasons, with the best record being a modest 4-6. Jim Pittman was hired from a successful bowl campaign at Tulane, but tragedy struck midway through the 1971 season when Pittman was felled by a fatal heart attack during the Baylor game. His chief aide, Billy Tohill, took over and piloted TCU through the 1973 season. Then another former Frog great, Jim Shofner, returned from the NFL and led the Horned Frogs until 1977. The coaching door then swung open for F. A. Dry, who brought some impressive credentials from Tulsa. Dry's TCU teams became known for hard-ball defense and impressive aerial displays, but a 3-8 mark in 1982 proved to be Dry's best in six seasons and yet another change of direction was mandated.

Similarly, the increase of 11,062 folks per game (a 42.5 percent increase) was one of the nation's best in 1994. Sullivan resigned in November 1997 after six seasons at the Horned Frog grid helm.

The WAC Years

TCU Football in 1996 was almost a double-dose of euphoria. Not only did it mark the 100th-year celebration for the sport, but the University officially became a new member of the expanded Western Athletic Conference as well. The Horned Frog program joined teams from Rice, SMU and Tulsa to form Quadrant 1 of the Mountain Division. Quadrant 2 members were Air Force, UNLV, Colorado State and Wyoming. Pacific Division members of the WAC were New Mexico, UTEP, BYU, along with Fresno State, San Jose State, Hawai'i and San Diego State.

Conference USA

The Frogs took on a new look in 2001 as they made the move into Conference USA. The 11-member football league included Army, Cincinnati, East Carolina, Houston, Louisville, Memphis, Southern Miss, South Florida, Tulane and UAB. Despite the change in leagues, TCU continued its strong run with a school record six consecutive bowl game appearances and back-to-back top 25 finishes for the first time since the 1950s.

Mountain West Conference

TCU began Mountain West Conference play in 2005 and immediately posted a record-breaking campaign.

The Frogs, picked to finish sixth, went 8-0 in their debut season to claim their first outright conference title since 1958. TCU became just the third team in MWC history to go undefeated and the first to be 8-0. After posting a 6-2 record in 2006, the Frogs are 14-2 in their opening two seasons of MWC play.

Dutch Meyer Era

In 1934, with Schmidt being lured to Ohio State, Leo R. (Dutch) Meyer became the Horned Frog grid coach. For the next 19 years, Meyer turned out top teams and produced a bevy of individual standouts, including Sammy Baugh, Davey O'Brien, Ki Aldrich, Darrell Lester and many others.

During Baugh's college days, the Frogs won 12, lost one in 1935; and won nine, lost two and tied a pair in 1936. As a junior, Baugh led TCU to a 3-2 victory in the Sugar Bowl and a national title, but was never able to help the Frogs claim a SWC title.

His successor, Davey O'Brien, took over leadership of the Frogs for the 1937 and 1938 seasons, and during his senior year, paced the Purples to their best record in history. That magnificent '38 ballclub was considered one of the Southwest Conference's finest some 50 years later. That fall, Meyer's Horned Frogs rolled to 11 straight wins, including a 15-7 triumph over Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl. The club outscored its opponents – 269 to 60 – and never found itself behind, except briefly in the Sugar Bowl encounter. After the Sugar Bowl, the Frogs were crowned national champions.

In 1941, TCU finished a solid second place in the SWC and won another championship in '44. The Dutchman's final league crown came in 1951, two years before he became full-time athletics director (Meyer would later retire as TCU's A.D. in 1963).

Abe Martin Era

When Meyer retired from coaching in 1953, his backfield assistant, Othol (Abe) Martin, took over the coaching reins. Abe installed the popular T-formation, and in just three short years had found the championship formula. His 1955 TCU ballclub, led by All-American Jim Swink, waltzed to nine victories in 10 games, the only loss being to Texas A&M. In 1958, Martin found the victory formula again with good quarterbacking and defense. In 1959, the Frogs disproved the critics to tie Texas and Arkansas for the crown, posting a 5-1 league record.

During his 14-year regime, Martin compiled a 76-64-7 mark in Frogland, directed the Purples to five post-season bowl games, and produced seven All-Americans.

Jim Wacker Era

From 1983 through 1991, Horned Frog grid fortunes were in the hands of former NCAA Division II coaching legend Jim Wacker, who left opulent marks as well as two pairs of national championship trophies at both Southwest Texas State and Texas Lutheran. Wacker's first campaign at TCU produced only 1-8-2 results, but he steered the Horned Frogs to a dramatic 8-4 turnaround in 1984 en route to a Bluebonnet Bowl date. Several national, as well as Southwest Conference Coach of the Year honors, ultimately were awarded to the bubbly Wacker. However, an NCAA probation for discovered infractions in 1985 affected the Frogs' rise over the next several seasons.

Pat Sullivan Era

On January 2, 1992, Pat Sullivan was introduced as the 27th head coach in TCU football history. Sullivan probably is best remembered as a college quarterbacking great at Auburn, where he won the Heisman Trophy in 1971. Sullivan instilled confidence along with an appreciation for self-discipline into the TCU grid makeup during his initial campaign with the Horned Frogs.

HISTORY

Though the Sullivan influence on TCU's program was obvious from the outset, tangible proof of his impact in Frogland became somewhat pronounced during 1994. For the Horned Frog faithful it was a campaign of sweet memories and bona fide successes beginning in early fall with the official dedication of TCU's Walsh Complex, an ultra-impressive athletic training and weight-conditioning center. Powered by the most prolific offense in the Southwest Conference, an attack spearheaded by quarterback Max Knake and tailback Andre Davis, the Frogs fashioned a 7-4 regular-season mark. En route, they captured a share of the school's ninth SWC football championship, along with an invitation to the Poulan/WeedEater Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La.

Further, thanks largely to Fort Worth's Committee of 100, TCU's home-game attendance records were shattered. The per-game home average of 37,174 far exceeded any previous mark.

Dennis Franchione Era

In three seasons under Dennis Franchione, the TCU football program took a giant leap forward. In his first season, Fran led the Frogs to a 7-5 record, which included an upset win over USC in the Sun Bowl.

The Frogs, who were 1-10 in 1997 under Pat Sullivan, tied Louisville for the biggest turnaround in the country with the six-win improvement in 1998. Although many believed the Frogs stood no chance, Franchione guided the Frogs to a 28-19 win over the vaunted Trojans. The victory was the first bowl win since 1957, when TCU defeated Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl.

Then in 1999, TCU claimed a share of the WAC title, earning a trip to the inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl, where TCU knocked off East Carolina, 28-14. Tailback LaDainian Tomlinson led the country in rushing in 1999, averaging over 168 yards per game for a season total of 1,850 yards.

The Frogs came back with one of the best seasons in school history as the new millennium got underway. Moving as high in the polls as No. 9 and carrying the nation's longest winning streak for a stretch, the Frogs put together a 10-2 campaign. Tomlinson again led the nation in rushing, this time with over 2,000 yards, en route to the Doak Walker Award. Following the season he was the fifth player selected in the NFL Draft.

Gary Patterson Era

Gary Patterson has posted four 10-win seasons in the last five years, including three 11-win campaigns since 2003. No other head coach in TCU history has reached 10 victories more than twice.

In just six years, Patterson has a 54-20 record to place third on the Horned Frogs' career victory chart. His .730 winning percentage is second all-time among TCU coaches with more than 20 games under their belt. Patterson has had TCU ranked in the final Top 25 in four of his six campaigns, including a No. 9 position in 2005 for the Frogs' highest appearance in a season-ending poll since 1959.

In his tenure, Patterson has coached 64 All-Conference selections, five All-Americans, seven Freshman All-Americans and one Academic All-American. He has had 16 players drafted with 30 in NFL camps. Patterson was the 2002 Conference USA and 2005 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He was also a 2003 finalist for Bobby Dodd and Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year honors. He appeared on the 2006 Bobby Dodd Watch List.

TCU has garnered national attention in nearly every season. The 2003 Frogs won their opening 10 games in making a BCS run, while the 2005 squad opened the campaign with a 17-10 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma. The Frogs are 4-0 versus Big 12 opponents the last two seasons. TCU has recorded victories in the 2002 Liberty Bowl, 2005 Houston Bowl and 2006 Poinsettia Bowl.

*1896, 1899, 1901, 1903 — no coaches listed

1929 (No. 7) — TCU's first Southwest Conference championship team, led by halfback Cy Leland, quarterback Howard Grubbs and All-America guard Mike Brumbelow, finished the season undefeated (9-0-1) and was placed No. 7 in the nation in an unofficial AP ranking. The familiar AP poll of today was not originated until 1936.

1932 (No. 4) — The undefeated Horned Frogs (10-0-1) rose to true national prominence in '32 as they romped through the Southwest Conference race with ease and wound up No. 4 in the country in the final rankings of Illustrated Football magazine, the game's leading authority of the era. Six members of the starting line, anchored by All-America guard Johnny Vaught, were named all-conference, as were both halfbacks, Blanard Spearman and Red Oliver. When Pittsburgh was invited to the Rose Bowl over TCU, the Frogs tried to arrange a post-season game against Tulane, another highly regarded team, but nothing came of it.

1933 (No. 9) — Coach Francis Schmidt produced three teams in the nation's Top 10 during his five seasons at TCU. The 1933 squad was the third. Paced by halfback Charlie Casper, the Frogs rolled to a 9-2-1 record but closed fast with stunning victories over Texas (30-0), Rice (26-3) and SMU (26-6). This finish impressed the syndicated sportswriter Grantland Rice so much he put TCU No. 9 in the final national rankings of his popular annual ratings service known as Grantland Rice's Cities Service Football Guide.

1935 (No. 1 • National Champions) — As a TCU lineup produced two All-Americans for the first time – quarterback Sammy Baugh and center Darrell Lester – the Christians reached the zenith of a national championship in the thrilling season of '35. The Frogs were tabbed No. 1 after the bowl games by the Williamson Rating System, the most authoritative poll in the land at the time. TCU wound up No. 1 after its 3-2 victory over powerful LSU in the Sugar Bowl. The Frogs' only loss had been a narrow one (20-14) to SMU in "The Game of the Century." But when the Mustangs were upset by Stanford 7-0 in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day, the same afternoon that the Purple whipped LSU in New Orleans, Williamson crowned TCU No. 1.

1936 (No. 5) — Injuries, freaky upsets and a couple of foul-weather scoreless ties couldn't keep Sammy Baugh from repeating as an All-American and leading the Frogs to No. 5 in the nation in the final Williamson Rating System. Along the way, Baugh knocked off conference champion Arkansas, rudely upset the nation's last remaining perfect-record team, Santa Clara, and then won a duel with Marquette in the inaugural Cotton Bowl Classic. All of that left the Frogs with a 9-2-2 record.

1938 (No. 1 • National Champions) — A dream season. This incredible Frog team handily went 11-0, including the 15-7 victory over No. 5 Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl. TCU captured every meaningful No. 1 ranking – AP, Williamson, Helms – turned out eight all-conference players on various selections, and three All-Americans, quarterback Davey O'Brien, center Ki Aldrich, and tackle I.B. Hale. To say nothing of O'Brien winning the Heisman, Maxwell and Camp trophies. As the true national champions, the Frogs outpolled three other undefeated elevens in '38 – Tennessee, Oklahoma and Duke.

1941 (No. 10) — Quarterback cohorts Kyle Gillespie and Emery Nix led the Frogs to a 7-2-1 record with the aid of All-America tackle Derrell Palmer and all-conference end Bruce Alford. Their only losses were to Top 10 teams, No. 6 Fordham and No. 9 Texas A&M. But later, Nix sparked TCU to a memorable 14-7 upset of No. 1-ranked Texas, the Life century team. Ultimately, at the end of the regular season, the Williamson Rating System thought highly enough of the Frogs to rank them No. 10 in the nation. They became the first Southwest Conference team to play in the Orange Bowl, where they lost a wild one to Georgia, 40-26.

1951 (No. 10) — Sophomore Ray McKown, running and passing out of the old Dutch Meyer spread formation, carried the Frogs to their most surprising conference title with only a 6-4 record. Still, these Frogs were ranked No. 10 in the nation in the UPI poll at the season's end. In so doing, McKown earned All-America honors, as did Keith Flowers and tackle Doug Conaway. In the Cotton Bowl game, TCU outgained Bear Bryant's Kentucky team by a huge margin, but saw no fewer than five drives stall inside Kentucky's 10-yard line, and were outscored 20-7.

1955 (No. 5) — Jim Swink set rushing and scoring records galore as the Frogs loitered the whole season among the nation's elite and won the Southwest Conference championship. In the end, with a 9-1 regular season record, they were ranked No. 3 by the Litkenhouse System, No. 5 by UPI, and No. 6 by AP. Swink was a unanimous All-America halfback and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and center Hugh Pitts also made All-America.

1958 (No. 9) — The Frogs breezed to an 8-2 record and the conference crown behind the passing of Hunter Enis, the running of Jack Spikes and Marvin Lasater, and the line play of All-America tackle Don Floyd. TCU was ranked No. 9 in the final UPI poll and No. 10 by the AP. In the Cotton Bowl game they fought undefeated and No. 6-ranked Air Force to a 0-0 tie.

1959 (No. 7) — These Frogs basically put three All-Americas on the field with fullback Jack Spikes and tackles Don Floyd, a repeat selection, and Bob Lilly, who would be a unanimous choice in '60. They bruised their way to another 8-2 record, tying Texas and Arkansas for the conference title. When all the votes were in from the final polls, TCU was ranked No. 7 by AP and No. 8 by UPI.

2000 (No. 18 ESPN/USA Today Coaches; No. 21 AP) — LaDainian Tomlinson became one of college football's greatest ball carriers – only the second player in history to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a season and more than 5,000 in a career. Behind "LT," the Frogs sped to a 10-2 season record and the WAC championship. This performance enticed the Dunkel Index, one of the eight selectors for the Bowl Championship Series, to rate the Frogs No. 7 in the nation, their highest ranking in 40 seasons.

2002 (No. 22 ESPN/USA Today Coaches; No. 23 AP) — After a season-opening overtime loss at Cincinnati, the Frogs reeled off 10 wins in their next 11 games. The Frogs gained a share of the Conference USA title and posted an AXA Liberty Bowl win over Colorado State. Linebacker LaMarcus McDonald, the league's Defensive Player of the Year, led a squad that ranked first in the nation in both total defense and in stopping the run.

2003 (No. 24 ESPN/USA Today Coaches; No. 25 AP) — The Frogs reeled off 10 straight wins to open the season, climbing as high as number 10 in the national rankings. Their success, which included five three-point wins, caught the attention of the nation, as they moved to sixth in the BCS Standings, the highest ranking ever for a school from a non-BCS conference. A late season loss at Southern Miss kept the Frogs from winning their second straight conference title. The Horned Frogs hosted nationally-ranked Boise State in the inaugural PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl and dropped an exciting 34-31 contest. Nick Browne was the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Year and earned All-America accolades. Defensive end Bo Schobel set a school record for sacks while earning second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press. Head coach Gary Patterson was one of three finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year honors.

2005 (No. 9 USA Today Coaches; No. 11 AP) — TCU (11-1, 8-0) closed the season ranked ninth by USA Today for its highest appearance in a final poll since finishing seventh in the 1959 campaign. The Frogs, one of just seven teams in the nation with 11 wins, concluded the year with 10 straight victories. It was the second-longest winning streak in the nation behind only national champion Texas (20). TCU opened and closed 2005 with victories over Big 12 bowl teams, winning at Oklahoma and then defeating Iowa State. Overall, the Frogs were 5-0 against bowl teams. TCU led the nation in interceptions (26), takeaways (40) and turnover margin (1.75, +21). TCU set a single-season school record with 50 touchdowns, while its 398 points scored ranked second in Frog history. TCU, in its first season of Mountain West Conference play, became just the third team in league history to post an undefeated record (8-0). In the process, TCU captured its first outright league championship since sweeping through the Southwest Conference en route to the 1938 national title. TCU paced the Mountain West Conference with 18 all-conference selections with Cory Rodgers a consensus All-American at kick returner. Gary Patterson was the MWC Coach of the Year with tailback Aaron Brown named Freshman of the Year. Linebacker Jason Phillips and defensive end Tommy Blake were Freshman and Sophomore All-Americans, respectively. Phillips, a second-team selection, became the first freshman defensive player in league history to be first or second-team All-MWC.

2006 (No. 21 USA Today Coaches; No. 22 AP) – TCU (11-2, 6-2) posted its fourth 10-win season in the last five years. The Frogs became one of only five teams in the nation to reach 11 victories three times in the last four campaigns. With victories over Baylor and Texas Tech, TCU improved to 4-0 against Big 12 opponents in the last two seasons and 8-1 in its past nine games against teams from BCS conferences. The Frogs closed the year by winning their final eight games for the fourth-longest current streak in the nation. Earlier in the season, in a carryover from 2005, TCU won 13 in a row for the longest winning streak in the country. The Frogs finished the campaign ranked 21st by the Associated Press and 22nd in the USA Today poll. It represented the fifth time in the past seven years that TCU closed the season in the top 25. The Frogs ranked second nationally in total defense (234.9 yards per game) and run defense (60.8 yards per game) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game). TCU was one of three teams nationally to not allow a 100-yard rushing game by an opposing running back. Offensively, the Frogs were ninth nationally in rushing (194.6 yards per game) and 17th in total offense (408.5 yards per game). Thirteen Frogs combined for a total of 14 All-MWC selections. Safety Brian Bonner was a first-team pick as a return specialist and a second-team choice on defense. TCU placed four players on the first-team defense, including unanimous selection Tommy Blake at defensive end.

TCU was tabbed No. 1 in the nation by the Williamson System, the only rating organization to publish a list after the New Year's Day Bowl contest, and ranked among the top five teams in the country by all rating services at the conclusion of the regular season. Featuring stars Sammy Baugh and Darrell Lester, the Frogs won 10 straight games before falling to SWC Champion SMU in the next-to-last game of the regular season. The Horned Frogs later defeated LSU, 3-2, in the 1936 Sugar Bowl. TCU ended the year with a record of 12-1.

1938

This remarkable Frog combine was ranked No. 1 by all the rating systems. TCU's only undefeated and untied team won the SWC Championship, then followed that feat with a Sugar Bowl victory over Carnegie Tech, 15-7. The 1938 lineup included three All-Americans – Davey O'Brien, who was the first footballer to win the Walter Camp, Heisman and Maxwell trophies the same year, plus Ki Aldrich and I.B. Hale. The Frogs ended the season with a record of 11-0.

HISTORY
TCU

In the 70-year history of the Heisman Trophy, five Horned Frogs have finished in the top-five in voting for the prestigious trophy. Sammy Baugh finished fourth in 1936, the second year the trophy was presented. In 1938, Davey O'Brien became the first football player from both TCU and the Southwest Conference to win the award. Jim Swink finished second in 1955. Kenneth Davis was fifth in 1984. In 1999, LaDainian Tomlinson placed 14th as a junior. He was fourth after his senior season in 2000.

Davey O'Brien accepts the Heisman Trophy at New York's Downtown Athletic Club in 1938.

THE IRON SKILLET

TCU-SMU Series Notes

During the post-World War II college football boom, the TCU and SMU student body created a traveling trophy called the Iron Skillet that was presented to the winner of the annual football game between the rivals. The tradition eventually died, and the skillet was lost. In 1993, the tradition was revived as SMU defeated TCU, 21-15. The skillet is presented to the winning team after each game.

1936 SUGAR BOWL
TCU 3, LSU 2 • January 1, 1936

New Orleans, La. — Bernie Moore, coach of the LSU football team, was skeptical that TCU's 3 to 2 victory in the Sugar Bowl game was a conclusive test of the squads. "My conclusion of the game was that the slippery field eliminated at least 30 percent of the offensive power of both teams," he said. Dutch Meyer, coach of TCU, said he thought the contest before a capacity crowd of 35,000 was the "finest I've ever seen played in the rain."

Yesterday's "baseball score" game was a thriller which kept the spectators in their seats despite a slow rain which fell throughout the second half ... LSU scored in the second quarter after passes and runs brought the ball to the TCU two-inch line where it changed hands on downs. When (Sammy) Baugh attempted to pass from behind the goal line he stepped over the end zone, automatically giving LSU a safety for a two-point lead. The Texans came back in the same period to recover a Louisiana fumble on the Louisiana 40 and pushed down to the LSU 16. Taldon Manton then kicked a field goal from the Tiger 26. From that point on the game was a battle of mighty defensives...

TCU played most of the game minus the services of three of her brightest stars — Left Halfback George Kline, All-American Center Darrell Lester and Halfback Rex Clark ... Clark played only one down and that was by the courtesy of Coach Meyer who wanted the injured senior star to be able to say he played in the 1936 Sugar Bowl game ... Baugh made the longest run of the day — a 44-yard gallop.

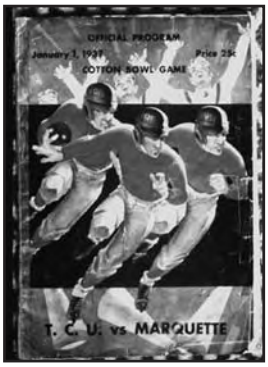
1937 COTTON BOWL
TCU 16, Marquette 6 • January 1, 1937



Dallas — With a sling-back attack that whipped over a field goal and two touchdowns in the first 25 minutes of play and with a sturdy defense that piled up the Marquette Golden Avalanche, TCU captured a spectacular football game here this New Year's Day. The score in the Cotton Bowl classic was 16-6.

So sudden, sharp and dazzling was the sweep of action of the battle that 15,000 spectators, who braved threatening weather, forgot the gray gloom of the afternoon. Led by Sammy Baugh, who out-passed and outplayed "Buzz" Buivid to cinch his claim to the title of the greatest passer of the season, the Texans uncorked an offense that flared into long gains both on the ground and in the air. Although it was Baugh who paced the attack and won the attention of the crowd, it was L.D. Meyer who did the real damage...

He scored all of TCU's 16 points. He kicked a 33-yard field goal for the first three points in the opening minutes. Before the first quarter had ended, Meyer collaborated with Sambo on a 55-yard pass-and-run gain for the first Frog TD, and in the second quarter he took an 18-yard heave from Vic Montgomery for the last score. Meyer even converted after the first touchdown.

A 60-yard punt return by Art Guepe in the first quarter accounted for all of Marquette's points.

1939 SUGAR BOWL
TCU 15, CARNEGIE TECH 7 • JANUARY 2, 1939

New Orleans, La. — It was with power, passes and kicking that the Christians made the two touchdowns and one field goal that enabled them to win, 15-7. Carnegie's most consistent method of attack was a bristling, quick-starting and hard-hitting offense, but it was with a brilliant 38-yard pass in the last seconds of the first half that the Skibos scored ... The second half started with the Pittsburghers leading, 7-6. The first time they got possession of the hoghide, the Frogs proved irresistible. Moving with giant strides, they went 80 yards and a touchdown on five plays.

TCU punted one time. That fact alone indicates accurately how fearfully effective was the ground-gaining maneuvers of the big white-shirted representatives ... The one punt figured in making TCU's first touchdown ... When the Skibos punted out, the TCU regulars took over and went 48 yards on 11 plays to take a 6-0 lead ...

Carnegie took the next kickoff and went to town with big, fast and tough George Muha doing most of the dirty work ... Earl Clark intercepted a pass and ran 25 yards to the Carnegie 35 yard-line, but Durward Horner, a TCU end, had been offsides so the play was called back ... It was on fourth down of this series of plays that Petey Moroz cut loose with his long fine pass for the Carnegie touchdown ...

The third quarter (Davey) O'Brien passed to Horner down the middle ... The big end caught the ball between two Skibos, but evaded both of them and ran 24 yards across the goal line.

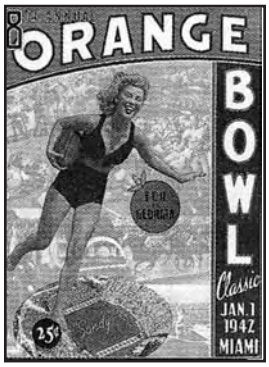
1942 ORANGE BOWL
Georgia 40, TCU 26 • January 1, 1942



MIAMI, FLA. — In the wildest, weirdest football battle ever waged in this corner of the country, the Georgia Bulldogs outscored the courageous TCU Horned Frogs 40-26 ... Coach Wally Butts' fast team, well-equipped on ground and in the air, almost chased the Frogs off the field for 35 minutes... The score mounted to 40-7 with only a few minutes played in the second half.

But the Frogs are not quitters ... Everything was against them. They couldn't hold the enemy, they couldn't move themselves and they were battered and weary from their empty-handed efforts. But there was too much tradition behind those purple shirts. Suddenly, almost as if a fresh wind had blown into the stadium, the tide turned. They knocked over three touchdowns in rapid order. They turned back every Georgia thrust. The great comeback in the last 25 minutes saved the Frogs from humiliation.

Bruce Alford was the Frog star ... He blocked a punt, he made two great catches for touchdowns... After the rest period, Texas supporters hoped for a rally. But Georgia stepped out and banged 80 yards for still another touchdown that promised to make it a rout ... From that moment to the final gun it was the Bulldogs who held on and the Frogs who ripped.

1945 COTTON BOWL
Oklahoma A&M 34, TCU 0 • January 1, 1945

DALLAS — With speed, spirit and spiraling passes, the Cowboys of Oklahoma A&M completely outclassed the TCU Horned Frogs in the ninth annual Cotton Bowl football game here this crystal clear New Year's afternoon to win, 34-0. Except for the second quarter when they staved off repeated threats, the Frogs were never able to cope with the double-pronged attack ... The first touchdown, scored in the fifth minute, climaxed a 59-yard advance. The second whirled 61 yards, the third 62 yards, the fourth 40 yards and the fifth 66 yards ...

The Frogs moved on the ground several times when in their own territory, but after crossing the 50-yard line they were always thwarted by the bulling tactics of the burly Cowboy line ... Only once did the Frogs get inside the A&M 35-yard line and that was on a pass interception ...

Bob Ruff was the only TCU back who was able to gain with any consistency, although Jesse Mason did some good work for a short time.

Coach Dutch Meyer tried all kinds of defenses against the Aggies, including a seven-man line which moved fullback Cox into the line. None of them worked for more than a few minutes at a time. The Aggies were too good in too many different ways.

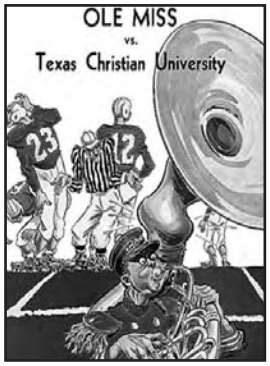
1948 DELTA BOWL
Mississippi 13, TCU 9 • January 1, 1948



MEMPHIS, TENN. — Trailing a hard-trying TCU team by nine points, the great Charley Conerly suddenly soared to the dramatic heights of football throwing expected of him. In just five minutes his rifle arm accounted for two touchdowns as the Confederates bested the Christians, 13-9, in the first Delta Bowl game.

In the closing minutes of the third period, Conerly launched a passing flurry that carried exactly 80 yards in eight plays ... The Frogs, still going strong, marched right back to the Rebel 37 where an intercepted pass sat Conerly up in business again. This time he threw only two passes...and they ate up just 63 yards to win the ball game ...

In more ways than one, it was a tough game for the Frogs to lose... But they fumbled badly, losing the ball twice at crucial moments.

There were nine minutes yet to play and the Frogs gave the enemy fans a heart attack by holding the leather. Just six of them from their one-yard line, where Otis Kelvey was dropped on the kickoff, the Christians powered right up field for 59 yards... But the last threat died when Knox's pass was batted up and intercepted by the Ole Miss linebacker on the Reb 38.

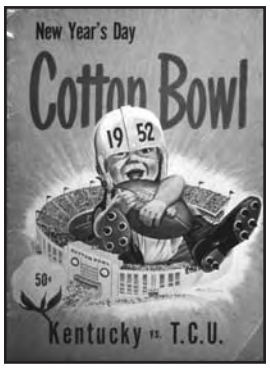
1952 COTTON BOWL
Kentucky 20, TCU 7 • January 1, 1952



Dallas — TCU, distressingly flat except for one magnificent minute-and-half surge late in the third quarter, succeeded only in making it a masterpiece of frustration. And so the four-times-beaten Wildcats from the Bluegrass State thoroughly trounced the Southwest Conference champions before a capacity throng of 75,349 ... 20-7. Kentucky scored on two surges of 52 and 57 yards in the first and second quarters to post its 13-0 half-time lead.

Frogs, who had bogged down once on the four, wasted another 59-yard push to the 24 early in the second quarter. Here, Clark intercepted a Mal Fowler pass returned to the Kentucky 43 and the Wildcats tromped on from here for 57 yards and another touchdown in 11 plays ... TCU made its 48-yard move to the five after this and came back later in the quarter with its 51-yard march to the one all for nothing ... (Gilbert) Bartosh drew his first chance of the game ... Here Bartosh called a direct snap — back Bobby Jack Floyd went 43 yards for touchdown on the longest run of the day.

Against the wind in the fourth Bartosh guided the Frogs 40 yards ... The TCU command sent in McKown to punt and he obliged with his neat kick-out on the 8. But here, where holding 'em was imperative for TCU, Tom Fillion broke loose for 17 yards on a third-down-seven-to-go-play ... Kentucky held the ball, put TCU in the hole with the kick and Bartosh was spilled for losses.

1956 COTTON BOWL
Mississippi 14, TCU 13 • January 2, 1956

Dallas, Texas —The University of Mississippi Rebels, champions of the Southeastern Conference, spotted the TCU Horned Frogs, champions of the Southwest Conference, 13 points in the 20th annual Cotton Bowl football game before 75,000 spectators here this warm and sunny Monday afternoon and then swung back to win by the margin of a single point, 14-13 ... (TCU) actually lost the game for being in motion on a conversion effort.

They made the 14th point on the first try, but because a player was in motion, they had to try again from five yards farther back, and missed. They probably lost the game on the opening kickoff when quarterback Chuck Curtis made the mistake of receiving and running with the ball. He was so badly injured when tackled that he never returned to action ... In spite of the handicap, the Horned Frogs scored a touchdown in the first quarter and counted in the second to lead 13-0 before the Rebels got their first touchdown to make it 13-7 at the half ... Mississippi won the game in the 11th minute of the fourth quarter ... Billy Lott scored on a five-yard gallop around his right wing. The Rebs' winning move traveled exactly the same distance as their first touchdown parade: 66 yards ... The Frogs went 44 and 75 yards for their touchdowns.

TCU 28, Syracuse 27 • January 1, 1957

Dallas — Harold Pollard's four-for-four conversions and the blocking of Syracuse's third point-after-touchdown attempt by (Chico) Mendoza produced a 28-27 Cotton Bowl victory for TCU after 18 years of waiting. The Frogs had dropped five successive bowl appearances and had not recorded a post-season triumph since 1939. It was a moving offensive show all the way with the TCU passing providing a balance Syracuse couldn't stop and the Saltine Warriors riding powerfully on a running game spearheaded by the All-America halfback, Jim Brown. He gained 132 yards and was voted the game's outstanding back. The Frogs' All-American tackle, Norman Hamilton, was the one defender who came nearest to stopping Brown consistently and he was chosen as the game's outstanding lineman.

Syracuse scored in the last two minutes to give the game its touch of such hair-breadth closeness. For much of the afternoon it was TCU's game and a couple of times seemed on the verge of turning decisive.

There was a unique twist to the first-half scoring in that each team intercepted passes and then drove 70 yards to score and each recovered fumbles and pushed out short yardage for the second touchdowns.

1959 COTTON BOWL
TCU 0, Air Force 0 • January 1, 1959

Dallas — The gentlemen operating the scoreboard had the easiest occupation in all land as the Southwest Conference champions (TCU) and the future generals (Air Force Academy) from Colorado Springs played the second 0-0 deadlock in the 23-year history of the New Year's Day classic ... It was the fourth tie game ever unreeled before a Cotton Bowl assemblage ... It was a disappointing final for both clubs. The Horned Frogs took the field bearing an 8-2 record. The Falcons were unbeaten in 10 games and had their season immaculate but for a tie with Iowa. The Frogs fumbled the ball on eight occasions and on three of these wasted possession. One of these came early in the final period and surely tried the composure of Coach Abe Martin as he saw the Falcons reclaim a bobble just eight steps from the Air Force Academy's end zone ...

The field, covered by tarpaulin during the snow fall earlier in the week, was damp and contributed to the uneasy handling of the ball. The visiting Falcons also had difficulty retaining the sphere and lost control on three of their five fumbles. Jack Spikes attempted both of TCU's field goals, the first early in the opening period ... The Airmen offered their severest threat midway of the second quarter ... It was here that the Frog line gave its best performance, restraining the Silver and Blue on the six, the spot from where George Pupich missed a field goal.

1959 BLUEBONNET BOWL
Clemson 23, TCU 7 • December 19, 1959

Houston — The Frogs were drowned, 23-7, by a deadly sprinkle of Clemson passes in a seven-minute period of the final quarter ... The sudden Clemson scoring flood washed away a 7-3 lead TCU carried into the fatal final period. A narrow margin, but one that, at the time, appeared enough to send the luckless Tigers down to their fourth straight bowl defeat ... Neither team had threatened seriously after Clemson's second quarter 22-yard field goal by Lon Armstrong, and TCU's lone touchdown, a 19-yard pass from Jack Redding to Harry Moreland with 5:45 left in the first half. Clemson had completed only one gaining pass all afternoon, that a 5-yard throw from Tiger quarterback Harvey White ...

White must have spotted the silver lining in the gathering darkness for Tiger hopes. He took plenty of time behind the mammoth line and arched a long, high shot toward right end Gary Barnes, racing past TCU's Larry Dawson at the Frog 35. Armstrong added the extra point ... Two plays after the kickoff, Armstrong lassoed a pass from TCU quarterback Donald George ... From there, Lowndes Shingler, overwhelmingly voted outstanding back, came back to guide the Tigers for the final slap on the cheek to a proud TCU team which had gained wide respect as the class of the Southwest Conference, winning seven games to finish in a 3-way tie for the title.

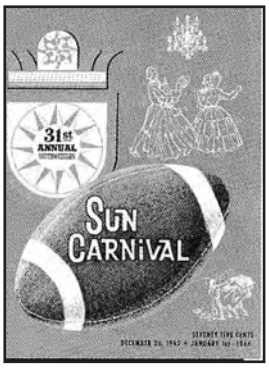
1965 SUN BOWL
Texas Western 13, TCU 12 • December 19, 1965



El Paso, Texas — The Miners sulked off the field with a 10-point deficit at the intermission, but then pumped up Billy Stevens' arm and Joe Cook's foot and eventually deflated the Frogs, 13-12. Stevens, who gained second rank among the nation's passers this season, proved his stardom to TCU by racking up 208 yards on 21 pass completions, the most ever against an Abe Martin team. The skinny sophomore had only seven strikes in the first half as the ball-controlling Frogs rammed into a 10-0 lead. Stevens made the 31st annual post season game a vastly different story in the second half.

Stevens shot a 34-yard touchdown pass to 165-pound flanker Chuck Hughes and a startling comeback was begun ... The Miners drove 70 yards for a tying 21-yard field goal by Cook... Texas Western, a raging defensive team by this time, hopped on a TCU fumble at the Frog 29 ...

Cook kicked an 18-yard three-pointer FG four plays deep in the final period to boot the Miners into a 13-10 cushion. TCU's final two points were a gift. With 43 seconds left in the game ... The Miner quarterback raced back in his end zone for a safety ... The Frogs got their last chance. They could get only eight yards before the clock ran out ...

Although Stevens won the great air race in the end, TCU's senior quarterback, Kent Nix got a head start ...

David Smith hauling in Nix's 11-yard pass for the score ... The Frogs had another scoring opportunity in the first period ... (Bruce) Alford missed a kick from the 28.

1984 BLUEBONNET BOWL

West Virginia 31, TCU 14 • December 31, 1984

Houston — What had promise of being the exciting finish to an "unbelievable" season turned closer to a nightmare ... at least until TCU's dramatic, fourth-quarter comeback restored some degree of respect to the outcome in the 25th edition of the Bluebonnet Bowl. The final score was West Virginia 31, TCU 14. But for the Horned Frogs there were lots of dips and swerves along the way. For starters, a 21-point West Virginia blitz during a 14-minute span of the first half had somewhat of a sobering effect on the Purples. So did the loss of All-American running back Kenneth Davis, to a knee injury, in the early moments of the post-season classic.

After being shoved up and down the field by the Mountaineers' offense (355 yards), while countering with little punch themselves (148 yards) during the first 30 minutes, the Horned Frogs did make a contest of it after the intermission, scoring the only touchdown of the second half while mounting a couple of other drives which nearly resulted in points. Much of TCU's second half turnaround was due to the passing arm of senior Anthony Gulley who finished with 150 yards passing including TD tosses to Dan Sharp and Keith Burnett. Senior receiver James Maness caught five passes for 90 yards but was no match statistically for the six-catch, 152-yard performance of WVU lightning bug.

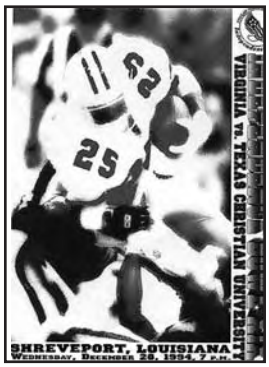
1994 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Virginia 20, TCU 10 • December 28, 1994



Shreveport, La. – A decade slipped by before TCU's Horned Frogs resurfaced from oblivion into the post-season... The Frogs mostly slipped however, as they trudged and muddied themselves on the rain-drenched field of Independence Stadium... Some 27,242 fans – a majority of them TCU supporters – withstood the temptation to stay home ... The view became painstakingly clear no matter the vantage point ... Virginia proved too good for these upstart Frogs and captured its first bowl triumph in five attempts since 1987 with the 20-10 victory ... "We can't use the field as an excuse in any way," TCU coach Pat Sullivan said. "I couldn't be more proud of our football team, but we weren't quite good enough in a couple of ways."

The 15th-ranked Cavaliers (9-3) dominated at the point of attack, where so many games will be won or lost ... The Frogs and their Southwest Conference-leading offense, which averaged 411.6 yards per game during the regular season, sustained nothing on this chilly, wet night. Virginia, which entered the contest with the nation's No. 1-ranked defensive unit against the run, surrendered only 191 yards and 11 first downs to the Frogs ...

The running of junior tailback Andre Davis, who rushed for 97 yards on 24 carries, failed to provide enough offense on a night when (quarterback Max) Knake struggled. "The truth of it is I played terrible," said Knake. "If I could have played better, there may have been a different outcome."

1998 SUN BOWL

TCU 28, USC 19 • December 31, 1998

El Paso, Texas — With only six wins, many thought TCU was not worthy of a bowl appearance. But, the Horned Frogs proved their critics wrong in a big way.

Basil Mitchell rushed for 185 yards and two touchdowns on only 19 carries as TCU earned its first bowl victory in 41 years with a 28-19 win over USC in the 65th Sun Bowl.

Quarterback Patrick Batteaux added 94 yards and two scores for TCU, which recorded its first post-season win since defeating Syracuse in the 1957 Cotton Bowl.

TCU (7-5) dominated the line of scrimmage, rushing for 314 yards while holding USC to a Sun Bowl record minus-23, breaking by two yards the mark set by Florida State in 1951. The Trojans (8-5) also posted the lowest rushing total in school history, eclipsing the previous record of minus-11 yards against Iowa in 1976.

Mitchell fell just short of Charles Alexander's Sun Bowl rushing record of 197 yards. He opened the scoring with a three-yard run 7:07 into the first quarter.

True freshman Carson Palmer completed 17-of-28 passes for a season-best 280 yards to rally USC.

The Horned Frogs put away the game by chewing more than six minutes off the clock before pinning USC inside its 15 with less than two minutes remaining.

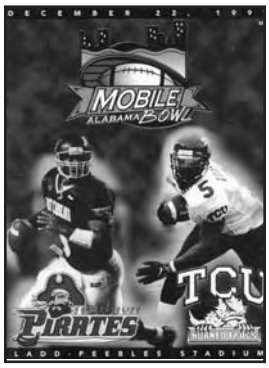
2000 MOBILE ALABAMA BOWL

TCU 28, East Carolina 14 • December 22, 1999



Mobile, Ala. — LaDainian Tomlinson ran for 124 yards and two touchdowns to lead TCU to a 28-14 victory over No. 20 East Carolina in the inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl.

It was the second consecutive bowl upset for TCU (8-4). East Carolina (9-3) entered the game as six-point favorites.

That didn't bother the Horned Frogs, who completely shut down the Pirates' running game, holding them to minus-16 yards.

East Carolina went into the game focusing on stopping Tomlinson, whose 1,850 yards edged Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne for the NCAA Division I rushing title.

TCU, which alternated between quarterbacks Casey Printers and Patrick Batteaux, made it impossible for the Pirates to adjust.

Early in the first quarter, Printers gained seven yards on an option run to move TCU to the 2. Batteaux, a senior who runs the option better than Printers, came in on the next play and pitched the ball to Tomlinson, who ran in for the touchdown. That tied the game at 7 and TCU slowly pulled away from there.

East Carolina, which couldn't run the ball at all against TCU, had to go to the air in the second half.

It initially worked, but early in the fourth quarter, Russell Gary intercepted Garrard's pass and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown. That gave TCU a 28-14 lead with 14:04 to play.

2000 MOBILE ALABAMA BOWL

Southern Miss 28, TCU 21 • December 20, 2000

Mobile, Ala. — Jeff Kelly's 28-yard touchdown pass to freshman Kenny Johnson with eight seconds left lifted Southern Miss to a 28-21 victory over No. 13 TCU in the Mobile Alabama Bowl.

In the first major bowl game of the season, TCU tailback LaDainian Tomlinson ran for 118 yards, his lowest total of the season. The Heisman Trophy finalist carried 28 times and scored two TDs in the third quarter.

Southern Miss (8-4) got a second chance after a fourth missed field goal, and trusted their senior quarterback instead of the shaky kicking game.

With 33 seconds left, they took over at the TCU 43-yard line after Mobile native Etric Pruitt got a hand on John Braziel's punt. Kelly threw two incompletions, then scrambled 14 yards for a first down. On the next play, he lofted a perfect strike over the middle just above safety LaVar Veale's outstretched arm, victimizing the nation's top defense.

The Horned Frogs (10-2) endured a December coaching change and uncertainty over who would lead them into the game. In the end, former defensive coordinator Gary Patterson replaced Dennis Franchione on the sidelines. Franchione left for Alabama Dec. 1 and was initially expected to coach the bowl game. TCU officials decided late last week to allow the Patterson era to begin a season early.

2001 galleryfurniture.com BOWL

Texas A&M 28, TCU 9 • December 28, 2001

Houston — Byron Jones intercepted three passes in his first start and Joe Weber scored two touchdowns, helping Texas A&M end a four-game bowl losing streak with a 28-9 victory over TCU (6-6) in the galleryfurniture.com Bowl.

The Aggies (8-4) beat their former Southwest Conference rivals for the 24th straight time.

Weber, voted offensive player of the game, broke a 7-7 second-quarter tie with a 2-yard touchdown run and added a 14-yard run that put the Aggies in control with 1:14 left in the third quarter.

TCU's Casey Printers was intercepted four times.

Jones earned MVP honors and also was the defensive player of the game with three tackles. Starting in place of injured Sean Weston, Jones had only two broken-up passes on his defensive chart in 11 games before he returned his first interception 62 yards in the first quarter to the Frog 35.

The Aggies couldn't score on that chance but Jones had a 15-yard interception to the TCU 1-yard line in the second quarter, setting up Mark Farris' quarterback keeper for the score.

Charlie Owens scooped up a fumble by A&M running back Derek Farmer and returned it 89 yards for a TCU touchdown with four minutes left in the half for a 7-7 tie. It was the second longest fumble return in school history.

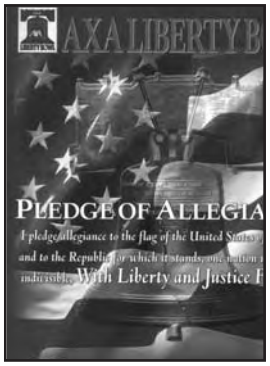
2002 AXA LIBERTY BOWL

TCU 17, Colorado State 3 • December 31, 2002



MEMPHIS, Tenn. — TCU figured out how to stop Colorado State standout Cecil Sapp after just two runs in the Liberty Bowl.

Sapp reeled off big gains of 59 and 25 yards on the Rams' first two possessions, but had 22 yards the rest of the game, and TCU tailback Ricky Madison stole the show with 111 yards rushing and a touchdown as the Horned Frogs beat No. 23 Colorado State 17-3 Tuesday.

It was the Horned Frogs' 500th victory in school history.

Madison ran for 107 of his yards in the rainy second half as TCU's offense came alive after a sloppy opening by both teams.

In the first half, the teams combined for three lost fumbles, two interceptions, a missed field goal and an unsuccessful faked field goal. Their sloppy play made for the lowest scoring first half of a Liberty Bowl since Penn State led Tulane 6-0 in 1979.

TCU (10-2) finally put together a seven-play, 62-yard scoring drive led by Lonta Hobbs in the closing minutes of the second quarter. The freshman ran for 39 yards in the drive, capped when Sean Stilley threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to LaTarence Dunbar with 1:21 remaining to put TCU up 7-0 at the break.

The Rams were held to 89 yards rushing - compared with 197 for TCU - for their lowest total of the season. TCU also outgained Colorado State 338-149.

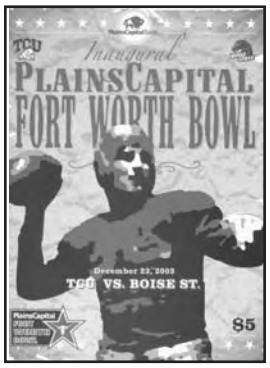
2003 PLAINSCAPITAL FORT WORTH BOWL

Boise State 34, TCU 31 • December 22, 2003



FORT WORTH, Texas — Ryan Dinwiddie, who ended his career as the most efficient passer in college football, threw for 325 yards and three touchdowns to lead the No. 18 Broncos (13-1) to a 34-31 win Tuesday night over No. 19 TCU in the inaugural Fort Worth Bowl.

Their bowl win on TCU's campus wasn't secured until sophomore Mike Wynn was well short on a 51-yard field goal attempt, the first kick in his college career, with 7 seconds left.

TCU (11-2) had its school-record 13-game home winning streak snapped. The Frogs had been in contention for a Bowl Championship Series spot until their only regular-season loss Nov. 20 and then turned down an invitation to last week's GMAC Bowl because it conflicted with exams.

Dinwiddie hit 19 of 35 passes with two interceptions, but his last touchdown was an 18-yarder to Derek Schouman for the winning score with 12:43 left.

"I thought we beat them on both sides of the football. Three big plays beat us," TCU coach Gary Patterson said. "There's a reason they've won a lot of games."

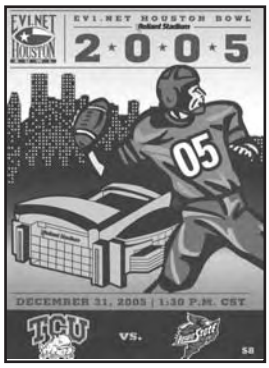
2005 EV1.net HOUSTON BOWL

#14 TCU 27, Iowa State 24 • December 31, 2005



Houston — Peter LoCoco hit a 44-yard field goal with 5:25 left in the game to put TCU on top 27-24 and the Frogs' defense held Iowa State in check on the ensuing drive for the victory at Reliant Stadium.

The TCU defense forced four Iowa State turnovers and Robert Merrill reached the century mark in rushing yards for the 10th time in his career as he ran for 109 yards on 11 carries with a touchdown to help lead the Frogs to the win.

TCU scored on its opening two possessions for a 14-0 lead just 6:36 into the contest. The two touchdowns came in a 1:55 span.

The Horned Frogs took the opening kickoff and drove 80 yards in 12 plays, capped by a 20-yard Merrill touchdown run.

On the second play of Iowa State's ensuing possession, Jeremy Modkins forced a fumble that was recovered by Drew Coleman, giving the Frogs possession at the Cyclone 21. Three plays later, an Aaron Brown 7-yard scoring run extended TCU's lead to 14-0.

Iowa State scored 17 points in a 4:30 stretch of the second quarter to take a 17-14 lead with 10:30 left in the first half.

The Cyclones' third turnover of the first half, a fumble recovery by David Roach, led to the Frogs going back on top. The first snap of TCU's ensuing series saw Jeff Ballard connect on an 84-yard touchdown pass to Michael DePriest to give the Frogs a 21-17 lead with 4:05 left in the half.

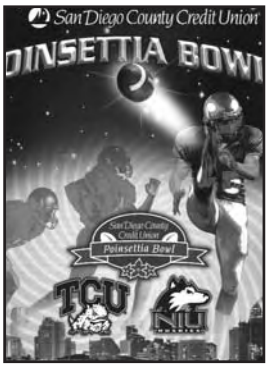
2006 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl

#25 TCU 37, N. Illinois 7 • December 19, 2006



SAN DIEGO (AP) - Penned in by a bunch of tough Horned Frogs, Garrett Wolfe had nowhere to run.

The national rushing leader was held to 28 yards, a whopping 130 below his average, and No. 25 TCU won a Poinsettia Bowl mismatch against Northern Illinois 37-7.

While Wolfe was repeatedly stuffed by one of the nation's best defenses, led by end Tommy Blake, Horned Frogs quarterback Jeff Ballard ran for three touchdowns and threw for another.

Ballard looked like more of a running back as he scored on runs of 10, 1 and 6 yards. He threw a 6-yard TD pass to tight end Brent Hecht and finished with 258 passing yards.

TCU's Lonta Hobbs rushed for 114 yards and one TD.

Wolfe came in leading the nation with an average of 158.3 yards rushing and 178.9 all-purpose yards.

The Horned Frogs, though, were fourth nationally in run defense after allowing only 67.6 yards per game. TCU kept alive its string of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, one of only four teams to do so this year.

Wolfe, who carried 20 times, came dangerously close to his career-low of 24 yards set in his first game, the 2004 season opener. The Huskies had only five first downs and 60 yards of total offense, compared to 23 first downs and 456 yards for TCU.

VICTOR BOSCHINI

Chancellor

Top Frog From Boardroom to Classroom, Victor Boschini Advances TCU

Anyone arriving on the TCU campus can see firsthand the results of Chancellor Victor J. Boschini's leadership. Construction is underway on the $100-million Campus Commons project, located across Stadium Drive from Daniel-Meyer Coliseum. Designed to enhance the TCU experience for students, the Commons will comprise four residence halls housing more than 600 students. The project also includes the new Brown-Lupton University Union and a grand, open greenscape — destined to become the focus of campus life.

Work has finished on the J.E. and L.E. Mabee Foundation Education Complex. This project includes a renovation of the Bailey Building and the addition of the Betsy and Steve Palko Hall. Athletics is also a beneficiary of the building boom. A new indoor practice facility will benefit the Horned Frogs' Division I teams, as well as the campus intramural program.

Further assuring TCU's forward momentum, the University has added more than 40 faculty positions over the past three years, improving the already low 15:1 student/faculty ratio. Facilities and academic initiatives grew from Vision in Action, a major strategic planning effort Dr. Boschini launched after becoming TCU's 10th chancellor in 2003. The future promises the implementation of other initiatives identified during the strategic planning process.

Each fall, the Chancellor keeps his finger on the pulse of the campus by teaching an academic course, The American University Experience, in the School of Education. It's a natural. He not only holds the rank of professor of education, but also brings an extensive background in higher education administration to the classroom. He served as president of Illinois State University and held key administrative positions at Butler and Indiana universities.

Dr. Boschini maintains a high profile in the world of higher education. He is chair elect of the NAICU (National Association of Independent Colleges & Universities) board of directors, and also serves on the board of ICUT (Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas). He serves as president of the executive board of the Mountain West Athletic Conference and is a member of the executive committee of the Texas Campus Compact.

Acknowledging his leadership and service, Indiana University recognized Chancellor Boschini with the School of Education's 2005 Distinguished Alumni Award.

The Chancellor is well-known among TCU's alumni and friends and in the greater community. He serves on the boards of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra, the Van Cliburn Foundation and the Safe City Commission. Dr. Boschini is a member of the Board of Trustees of Brite Divinity School. He also serves on the board of the State Farm Company Mutual Funds.

When TCU recruited Victor Boschini, the University got the added bonus of the Boschini family, including his wife, Megan McAuliffe Boschini, daughters Elizabeth Anne, Mary Catherine and Margaret Ellen, and son Edward Mark.

"I'm excited about the coming year," the Chancellor says. "We'll dedicate eight new facilities over the next two years, allowing us to house more students on campus and further provide a world-class, values-centered university experience. I'll also be working with our closest supporters to increase scholarship dollars so that future generations can benefit from an exceptional TCU experience."

DANNY MORRISON

Athletics Director

Dr. Daniel B. Morrison Jr. is in his third year as TCU's athletics director. Hired on May 19, 2005 by TCU Chancellor Dr. Victor J. Boschini Jr., Morrison was previously commissioner of the Southern Conference since 2001.

"My family and I are extremely fortunate and delighted to be at TCU," Morrison said. "We love TCU and Fort Worth.

"It's been an exciting time the last couple of years. Through the efforts of our coaches, staff and the TCU community, we've been able to build on a terrific foundation that was already in place when we arrived. Now, we need to keep the momentum moving forward."

During his first two years at TCU, Morrison has helped usher in the Horned Frogs' Mountain West Conference era. Seven league championships have been won with 16 of 20 sports represented in NCAA postseason play by either teams or individuals. TCU student-athletes totaled 21 All-America and 131 All-Conference selections in 2006-07.

Academics are progressing on an upward swing. The last two semesters have seen the highest grade-point averages by TCU student-athletes since the department began tracking the scores in 1999. Over half of the student-athletes had a 3.0 GPA or better. Furthermore, the football team had an 86 percent graduation rate for freshmen entering in 2001, well above the national average of 60 percent.

On the financial side, a partnership with ISP, the nation's leader in collegiate sports marketing, record football ticket sales and Mountain West Conference distributions led to an all-time best in departmental revenue in 2006-07.

In addition, Frog Club donations have continued to reach record levels, including $3.3 million in the 2007 fiscal year. When combined with $17.8 million given to TCU in both capital and endowment projects, Frog supporters have contributed approximately $21 million over the past year with that number reaching $27 million over two years.

Helping lead the way in the endowment area were Ron Parker and his wife Paula. They made a commitment to fully endow an athletic scholarship for the tight end position on the Frog football team. It's the first fully endowed position scholarship for any sport at TCU.

The momentum from the Parkers' gift extends into continued facility improvements at TCU.

In spring 2007, a new scoreboard was unveiled at the Lowdon Track and Field Complex and the $7 million Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility was officially dedicated on May 10. The Jane and John Justin Foundation and the Cox Family made the facility a reality.

Work also began on the $13 million Athletics Renovation Complex Project in the south end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium. Primary donors included Dick Lowe, Hunter Enis, Four Sevens Oil Company, Tex Moncrief, Duer Wagner III, Luther King, John Roach and the Amon G. Carter Foundation. Set for completion in time for the 2008 football season, the project will include six suites, 226 club seats, meeting and hospitality rooms, and an increased academic area for TCU student-athletes.

Facility improvements planned for 2007-08 include the installation of LED scoreboards in the home venues for basketball, volleyball, swimming and diving, tennis and soccer. There will also be new LED scorers' tables and video boards at the Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, as well as LED panels on the Dave E. Bloxum Sr. Scoreboard in the Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Upgrading facilities remains a focus for the future. Clarence Scharbauer will serve as chairman of the Amon G. Carter Stadium committee that will examine the various alternatives and options for the historical stadium.

As the seventh commissioner of the Southern Conference, Morrison established numerous progressive initiatives. He also presided over the first and second rounds of the 2002 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship hosted by the SoCon in Greenville, S.C.; instituted the SoCon's Distinguished Service Award program; tripled the number of post-graduate scholarships distributed by the league; and increased the number of students recognized with weekly, monthly and annual awards.

Prior to serving as Southern Conference commissioner, Morrison was senior vice president of Wofford College from 1997 to 2001 and director of athletics for Wofford from 1985 to 1997.

During his time as senior vice president, Morrison helped secure funds for campus-wide facility improvements totaling more than $20 million and had direct involvement in the Campaign for Wofford which raised $115 million.

As director of athletics, Morrison was instrumental in Wofford's move from the NAIA to NCAA Division II and then Division I status and Southern Conference membership in 1995.

During Morrison's tenure at Wofford, six women's sports were added, more than 65 named or endowed athletic scholarships were established and the athletics endowment increased from $150,000 to $15.5 million (during his time as senior vice president and athletics director). He also led negotiations that resulted in a 15-year agreement to host the NFL's Carolina Panthers training camp at the college.

A native of Burlington, N.C., Morrison attended Wofford, where he lettered four years in basketball and graduated summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa in 1975 with a Bachelor of Arts in mathematics. He obtained a Master of Education degree in administration and supervision from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1981, and a doctorate in educational leadership from the University of South Carolina in 2000.

Honors during Morrison's career include being named Wofford's 1992 Young Alumnus of the Year, as well as the University of South Carolina's 2002 Higher Education Department's Alumnus of the Year. He was elected to the Wofford Athletics Hall of Fame in 2002.

Morrison and his wife, Peggy, have two children: Trey, a graduate of the University of South Carolina, and Meg, who received her degree from Wofford.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for official working media credentials should be directed to the TCU Athletics Media Relations Office. All credential requests must be submitted on official news outlet letterhead, and such requests should be received no later than noon, two days prior to the game. For more information, contact TCU Athletics Media Relations at (817) 257-7969 or (817) 257-5394.

Season credentials will be mailed prior to the first game. No credentials will be mailed after Tuesday preceding the game. Thereafter, credentials may be picked up on game day at the media will-call located at the Press Elevator entrance under the West stands at Amon G. Carter Stadium. Weekly print media and non-reporting radio-TV representatives have least priority to media reservations.

MEDIA PARKING

Media receiving credentials for TCU's home football games are also provided convenient parking privileges. However, parking may be limited at times. The media parking lot is located on the lower parking lot, just southwest of Amon G. Carter Stadium. Access is gained from Bellaire Drive North.

WIRELESS INTERNET

Wireless Internet is available in the Amon G. Carter Stadium Press Box as well as for postgame filing in the Special Events Room of the John Justin Athletic Center.

Please see a media relations representative for a user name and password.

TELEPHONE UNITS

Several credit card accessible telephone units are available to visiting writers along press row. Media members wishing for a dedicated line should make their own arrangements through TCU Connect at 817-257-4357.

MEDIA ELEVATOR

The media entrance to the Amon G. Carter Stadium Press Box is via the media (old) elevator located under the West stands.

WEEKLY NOTES, RELEASES, STATS

All TCU game notes, media releases and statistics can be found on the department's website at www.gofrogs.com.

RADIO BROADCASTS

Three (3) pots and one (1) ISDN hook-up are available in the visiting radio booth. In addition, there is a dry-pair located in the visiting team locker room for use during post-game interviews. The visitor's radio booth is located on the south end of the lower press box level (writer's level). The TCU/ISP Sports Network is located on the upper press box level. Additional lines should be ordered through TCU Connect at 817-257-4357.

TELEVISION

TCU's live television appearances will be governed by the existing Mountain West Conference policy and association. All nonconference television appearances originating from Amon G. Carter Stadium must be approved by TCU Athletics Director Danny Morrison. Those TV production crews planning to telecast TCU games may contact the TCU Media Relations Office for suggestions of catering services to handle production crew's game day meal arrangements, as these crews are not served through TCU's pre-game media meal service. For information concerning electrical power, hookups and other similar needs, contact TCU Associate Athletics Director Ross Bailey at r.bailey@tcu.edu or (817) 257-7009. The TCU Physical Plant can also be of assistance at (817) 257-7955.

TIMEOUT POLICY

All electronic timeouts will be scheduled in accordance with Mountain West Conference-approved guidelines.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete team and individual statistics, scoring summaries, running play-by-play, quickie stats and post-game notes and quotes are provided by the TCU Media Relations Office. Pre-game food service is available beginning approximately two hours prior to kickoff, while beverages are available throughout the contest. This service is provided as a courtesy to working media. In addition, concession areas are available within the stadium confines.

Just TCU, Thank You!

AP, NCAA, ABC, CBS, NBC, AFCA. And, TCU Athletics.

Though the TCU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is a proud and integral part of Texas Christian University, it desires to be recognized simply as TCU (acronym only) Athletics. Ditto regarding references to its sports teams: TCU football, TCU baseball, TCU golf, etc.

In all sports-related media references, we respectfully urge that the university's teams be identified with an appropriate appellation – TCU. In subsequent references of the same presentation the team may be referred to by nickname - Horned Frogs. A shorter version of the nickname, Frogs, is acceptable in later usage.

SCOUTING PASSES

Professional scouts may obtain credentials through TCU's Media Relations Office. Scouts will be issued credentials to the press box on a space-available basis.

LOCKER ROOMS

The TCU locker room is closed, both at home and on the road. The visiting team's post-game press conference is held just outside the visiting locker room area located at the southwest corner of Amon G. Carter Stadium.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Following an approximate 10-minute cooling-off period, TCU coach Gary Patterson and requested players will conduct interviews in the media room located in the John Justin Athletic Center. Following road games, Patterson and requested players will be available outside the visitor's locker room. Post-game interviews should be arranged through a member of the TCU Athletics Media Relations staff. For home games, Horned Frog coach Gary Patterson and selected players will be brought to the Player Lounge in the John Justin Athletic Center. Enter through the weight room area located in the Walsh Complex. Admission to the post-game press conferences are limited to those individuals holding media credentials issued by the TCU Media Relations Office.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Field photographers must wear a photo armband in plain sight at all times. Photographers may obtain armbands in exchange for their sideline-photo credentials. This exchange may be made at either the bottom of the elevator prior to the game or on level one of the press box by a member of the TCU Media Relations staff. These sideline credentials are limited to representatives of daily newspapers, wire services, television camera persons, specially-approved publications and those persons on assignment from the TCU Media Relations Office. Only those photographers on assignment will be authorized credentials. Space does not allow for free-lancers. NCAA rules limit photographers to restraining lines clearly marked on the field. Photographers uncertain of sideline restrictions should seek clarification from a member of the TCU Media Relations staff. Photographers desiring to work from the photo deck will be issued passes and may use the non-reserved photo deck location of the Amon G. Carter Stadium press box.

COVERING PRACTICE

The TCU football team typically conducts workouts between the hours of 3 p.m. and 6 p.m, Tuesday through Thursday. Normally, the Frogs do not practice on Monday. Walk-thrus on Friday are closed. All remaining practices are generally open, unless otherwise specified, and interested media are invited to attend.

Photographers – both print and electronic – are welcome to TCU workouts but must adhere to restrictions of photo location and availability at the practice site. TV crews and photographers are permitted to shoot practice only after receiving clearance from the Media Relations Office.

INTERVIEWS WITH COACH PATTERSON

TCU coach Gary Patterson is available for telephone interviews between 2 and 3 p.m. Monday through Thursday. Interviews with Coach Patterson are coordinated through TCU Media Relations Director Mark Cohen at m.cohen@tcu.edu or (817) 257-5394. Patterson will also be available each Tuesday throughout the season at his weekly press luncheon in the Special Events Room in the John Justin Athletic Center. The luncheons run from noon to 1 p.m. Patterson will also be available for comments following practice sessions.

INTERVIEWS WITH PLAYERS

All interviews must be coordinated through the TCU Media Relations Office. Media wishing to conduct player interviews are encouraged to do so at the TCU Football Media Luncheon each Tuesday (in season) in the Special Events Room in the John Justin Athletic Center. The luncheons run from noon until 1 p.m. Interviews may also be obtained before the players report to pre-practice meetings or at the conclusion of practice. To schedule an interview, contact the TCU Media Relations Office before 10 a.m. on the day you wish to conduct the interview. No player will be pulled from the practice field to conduct an interview. Home or cell numbers will not be made available to the media and players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval from the Media Relations staff.

TELEPHONE INTERVIEWS

To arrange a telephone interview, contact the TCU Media Relations Office at least one day in advance so that ample time is given to notify the player or coach.

WORLD WIDE WEB

More information on TCU football, as well as all Horned Frog games, can be accessed on the internet at www.gofrogs.com.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE MEDIA RELATIONS

Contact the Mountain West Conference Media Relations Department for any information or questions concerning football in the MWC. League information is available at www.themwc.com. The football contact is Javan Hedlund. He can be reached at jhedlund@themwc.com or (719) 488-4051.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE TELECONFERENCE

Coach Patterson will participate in the Mountain West Conference's weekly football coaches media teleconference each Tuesday, beginning Aug. 29. Coach Patterson's time slot is scheduled for 11:42 a.m. CT (10:42 a.m. MT and 9:42 a.m. PT). Interested media may access the teleconference by calling Javan Hedlund at the Mountain West Conference for more details.

TV PRESENCE

After setting a single-season school record with 12 television appearances in 2006, TCU football has nine of its 12 regular-season games set for broadcast this year with the possibility of two additional contests airing.

The Horned Frogs have six nationally-televised games in 2007, including the opening four contests.

TCU's Sept. 1 season opener with Baylor will be televised on CSTV and kickoff at 5 p.m. at Amon G. Carter Stadium. Following a Sept. 8 game at Texas on FSN, the Frogs have back-to-back CSTV dates at Air Force (Sept. 13) and versus SMU (Sept. 22).

TCU's other national TV appearances are both Thursday night games on VERSUS as the Frogs host Utah (Oct. 18) and travel to BYU (Nov. 8).

The Frogs have three games (Sept. 29 vs. Colorado State, Oct. 6 at Wyoming, Nov. 3 vs. New Mexico) set for The Mtn. -- MountainWest Sports Network -- the first super regional sports network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference.

TCU's final two regular-season contests, Nov. 17 vs. UNLV and Nov. 24 at San Diego State, are not yet set for television but could be picked up at a later date.

CSTV

CSTV Networks, Inc., the 24-hour power in college sports, is the nation's leading digital and cable programming company dedicated to college sports. CSTV, part of CBS Corporation, connects more fans to more college sports than any other company and is now available to more than 65 million households across the nation.

Building upon a successful inaugural season of MWC football in 2006, CSTV will broadcast at least 14 MWC football games this year.

VERSUS

The Mountain West Conference and its member institutions comprise many of the country's legendary college football programs. The conference's teams are a showcase for some of the country's top college football talent, intense conference/regional rivalries, and never-say-die spirit on the field – serving as true role models of student/athletics with a commitment to sportsmanship. MWC Football exemplifies all the attributes of the VERSUS competitive gene.

The 2007 MWC Football on VERSUS schedule kicks off Sept. 1 with a doubleheader showcasing the MWC against the country's top conferences. In total, VERSUS will carry eight (8) college football telecasts featuring MWC schools.

The Mtn. – MOUNTAINWEST SPORTS NETWORK

The Mtn. - MountainWest Sports Network is the first network dedicated to a collegiate athletic conference. The Mtn. provides sports fans blanket coverage of MWC athletics across multiple sports. The Mtn. features more MWC games on television than ever before, including 30 live MWC football games, 75 live men's basketball games, 23 live women's basketball games, conference championships and men's and women's Olympic sports.

On July 1, 2006, TCU reached a seven-year agreement with ISP Sports, the national leader in collegiate sports marketing, that provides the company with primary multi-media rights to TCU Athletics.

With the partnership, ISP Sports receives the rights to all sales and marketing opportunities associated with Horned Frog sports, including the TCU radio network for all sports, print advertising in various athletic department publications, promotions and all signage in TCU athletics facilities.

"ISP is nationally recognized for its excellence in multi-media sports marketing, and we are excited to begin a relationship with such an outstanding company," says TCU Director of Athletics Danny Morrison. "We have been most impressed with the ISP team, and we look forward to a productive seven years."

TCU is the 32nd major NCAA athletic program to align itself with ISP Sports.

The unique TCU/ISP partnership provides comprehensive play-by-play coverage of TCU Athletics. Thanks in part to a multi-year agreement between TCU and Metroplex-based 100,000-watt 103.3 ESPN, the Horned Frog faithful and nearly six million people throughout the region will have access to every Horned Frog football and men's basketball game. The TCU/ISP Sports Network broadcasts can also be heard around the world via the internet on gofrogs.com.

The Gary Patterson Call-In Radio Show returns each Thursday from 6-7 p.m. The fast-paced show hosted by Brian Estridge, the Voice of the Frogs, features TCU players, coaches and fans. It's your chance to talk TCU football with the Head Coach of the Frogs.

Brian Estridge wraps up his first decade with insightful and entertaining play-by-play as the "Voice of the Horned Frogs" and TCU's Director of Broadcasting. In addition to his TCU radio responsibilities, Estridge has also provided play-by-play for numerous ESPNU and CBS/Westwood One radio productions. The Kershaw, S.C., native's radio career began at age 14 with stops along the way in South Carolina, North Carolina and Ohio where he served as the play-by-play voice of Miami (Ohio) University and Appalachian State University. His play-by-play has been honored by both the Texas Associated Press Broadcasters and the Press Club of Dallas as the best collegiate play-by-play in the state. He was one of three nominees in 1996 for North Carolina Sportscaster of the Year. Co-host of the popular "Galloway and Company" heard afternoons on TCU/ISP Sports Network flagship station 103.3 FM ESPN, Estridge graduated from Appalachian State with a B.S. in Political Communication. Estridge and his wife, Rebecca Ringer, and their children, Gaines and Ellie, reside in Colleyville.

John Denton returns to the TCU radio booth as the color analyst. The 2007 season marks the 19th year on the TCU/ISP Sports Network for the former Horned Frog kicker. Denton, who came to TCU as a walk-on, lettered four years as a kicker and punter for the Horned Frogs from 1981-84. He completed his career in the 1984 Bluebonnet Bowl. In 1983, only 11 of his 60 kickoffs were returned. Denton has drawn myriad broadcast assignments with Westwood One and CBS Radio Sports and their coverage of the NCAA Basketball Tournament, NFL Monday Night Football, NFL Playoffs and Major League Baseball's Game of the Week. In addition to his TCU football color analyst duties, Denton serves as analyst for TCU men's basketball and is a regular fixture on 103.3 ESPN's college and professional football coverage. In May, the All-American Football Foundation awarded Denton with its Lindsey Nelson Outstanding Broadcaster Award for excellence in broadcasting and dedication to the game of college football. Denton graduated from TCU in 1985 with a B.S. in broadcast journalism and serves as Director of the TCU Frog Club. Denton and his wife, Linda, reside in Southlake with their two daughters, Erin and Meredith.

Jeff Williams is back for his ninth season with the network. Serving as the play-by-play voice of TCU women's basketball since 1998, Williams began in 1999 as the sideline analyst for TCU radio and television broadcasts in football. He also provides play-by-play accounts for select men's basketball games. A current staff member at WBAP radio, Williams was the play-by-play voice of Penn State women's basketball from 1993-95. The former sports director of WMAJ in State College, Pa., Williams resides in Weatherford with his wife, Kathy, and their three children, Dustin, Abby and Jake.

Taylor Durham is in his second year as studio host. The 1996 Elon graduate has worked with ISP Sports as director of affiliate relations since March 2000.

Josiah Miller will be in his third season in his current capacity as the network engineer. He was previously the network coordinating producer for five years. A 2003 TCU graduate with a degree in radio, television and film, Miller also served as the network producer for the Dallas Mavericks Radio Network from 2003-2005. The Fort Worth resident is currently the production director for 103.3 ESPN in Fort Worth/Dallas. He and wife Sara were married in September and reside in Fort Worth.

Wayne Gossard is in his 17th season as a spotter for the TCU broadcasts. He is an independent oil producer, historian and leadership consultant. A graduate of SMU and the University of Oklahoma, Gossard and his wife, Lisa, have been married for 24 years and reside in Dallas.

Brian Sperry begins his 12th year as the game statistician for TCU football and his 18th overall keeping stats. He has also provided statistical assistance for Horned Frog men's basketball games the last seven years. In addition to his work with TCU, Sperry has also been the chief statistician for the Dallas Cowboys Radio Network while working with the Dallas Mavericks, CBS Radio, the Texas Longhorns and a host of other sports teams and media outlets. Sperry his wife, Tina, and their daughters Audrey, Lauren and Ella reside in McKinney.

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West Conference has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MWC continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its ninth year, the MWC has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

CRAIG THOMPSON
MWC Commissioner

The Mountain West Conference is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West Conference boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders four MWC schools (Utah, BYU, Air Force and Colorado State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert city of Las Vegas (the fastest growing metropolitan area in the West) and the Pacific Ocean locale of San Diego State. The southwestern flavor of New Mexico complements the western heritage and culture of Fort Worth, Texas, home of the MWC's newest member, TCU.

HISTORY

The Mountain West Conference was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from the former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Five of the MWC's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (BYU, Utah, New Mexico, Wyoming, Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well.

PROSPECTS

Who is a Prospective Student-Athlete (Prospect)?
You are a prospect if you have started classes for the ninth grade. Before the ninth grade, you may become a prospect if a university provides you (or your family or friends) any financial aid or other benefit that is not usually provided to prospective student-athletes.

How do I know if I'm being recruited?
There are several ways to be recruited: (1) A coach may provide you with an official paid visit to view the campus, (2) a coach may arrange an in-person, off-campus meeting with you (or your family), or (3) a coach or staff member may call you (or your family) on more than one occasion for the purpose of recruitment. Only coaches and athletic department staff can be involved in the recruiting process. Athletic representatives are prohibited from contacting a prospective student-athlete or members of his/her family by telephone, letter or in person for the purpose of encouraging participation in athletics at TCU. Please contact the coaching staff if you know of a prospect that may have the interest and ability to participate in intercollegiate athletics at TCU. The coach can then take appropriate action.

WHAT IS A CONTACT?

A contact is any face-to-face encounter between a prospect or the prospect's parent(s) or legal guardian and an institutional staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs in excess of an exchange of greeting. NOTE: At the Division I level, athletic representatives (boosters) may not contact you for the purpose of recruiting.

What can TCU offer you to attend?
You (or your family) may not receive any benefit, inducement, or arrangements (e.g. cash, clothing, cars, gifts, loans, etc…) to encourage you to sign a National Letter of Intent. TCU may offer you a one-year scholarship that covers room and board, tuition and fees, and required course-related books, or any part of these. TCU can recommend that this aid is renewed each year, as is the general practice at the institution, but this renewal is not guaranteed.

BOOSTERS

Who is a "booster"?
A "booster" is known in NCAA terms as a "representative of the institution's athletics interests." You become a booster if:

- you have ever been a member of any organization promoting TCU Athletics,
- you have ever made any type of donation to the Frog Club, TCU Athletics or any other TCU booster organization,
- you have ever assisted in evaluating or recruiting prospective student-athletes,
- you have ever assisted in providing benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families,
- you have promoted TCU Athletics in any other manner.

NCAA Bylaw 13.02.12.1 mandates that when you become a booster, you retain that identity for the rest of your life. As a representative of TCU's athletics interests, you are bound by NCAA rules. TCU is responsible for your actions.

INSTITUTIONAL CONTROL

"Institutional control" of Athletics is a fundamental requirement of NCAA rules. The NCAA constitution provides that each institution shall be responsible for ensuring that student-athletes, members of the institution's staff and other individuals or groups that represent the institution's athletics interests comply with all applicable NCAA regulations.
Because of the complexity of NCAA rules, this document does not include all applicable situations and should not be relied upon exclusively.

STUDENT-ATHLETES

If Amon G. Carter Stadium could talk, the stories it would tell. All told, hundreds of games have been played inside its classic stone facade. Yet, the stadium stands silent, save for two Latin phrases etched in stone forever.

Mens Sana in Copore Sano…a sound mind in a sound body. From the very beginning, TCU athletics has empowered the student as well as the athlete in its quest for the best in intercollegiate athletics.

Crede Quod Habeus et Habes…believe that you can and you will. Indeed, TCU continues to compete–and win–at the highest level of collegiate athletics, sponsoring 20 varsity sports, 11 for women and nine for men.

That quest for balance–to develop the student as well as the athlete–is still true today at TCU.

In striving to prepare the student-athlete for the challenges of today's competitive world, TCU provides an academic support program that serves to enhance the collegiate experience of the student-athlete.

During the past year, TCU student-athletes did very well academically. The last two semesters have seen the highest grade-point averages by TCU student-athletes since the department began tracking the scores in 1999. Over half of the student-athletes had a 3.0 GPA or better. In an effort to graduate well-rounded student-athletes, TCU athletics marketing has involved the students in various community outreach efforts, including Cook Children's Medical Center, Reading Frogs, the I Have a Dream Foundation and many other Fort Worth service projects.

Student-athletes have full access to the Academic Center located in the 38,000-square foot John Justin Athletic Center. This academic support area includes individual tutor rooms, group study rooms and a computer lab. The center provides student-athletes with much-needed academic space near their workout and competitive venues. The administration offices, including the athletic director's staff, as well as the football and compliance offices are located inside the Justin Center.
